Race and Morality Melvyn L. Fein, 2001-06-30 After I had finished my presentation a colleague and I sat rocking on the hotel porch to discuss its merits It was a picture perfect fall day in Jekyll Island Georgia and he was a friend Yes he explained what I was saying seemed to be true And yes it probably needed to be said but why did I want to be the one to say it Wasn't I after all a tenured professor who didn't need to make a fuss in order to retain his job Didn't it make sense to just kick back and enjoy the easy life I had earned The topic of our tete a tete was my speculations about race relations and he was certain that too much honesty could only get me in trouble Given my lack of political correctness people were sure to assume that I was a racist and not give me a fair hearing This was a prospect I had previously contemplated Long before embarking on this volume I had often asked myself why I wanted to write it The ideological fervor that dominates our public dialogue on race guaranteed that some people would perceive me as a dangerous scoundrel who had to be put in his place

Immigration, Assimilation, and Border Security Yoku Shaw-Taylor, Lorraine McCall, 2020-02-28 This second edition is an update of the intersection of border security immigration and assimilation in the U S A In addition to the history of immigration and custom services and shifts in attitudes about immigration this edition provides new information about the operations of the Department of Homeland Security to secure the border A new chapter examines developments in immigration policy relating to the border wall family separation unaccompanied immigrant minors and Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals or DACA The book includes real life stories of difficult incidents that arise due to the complicated relationship between immigration and border security The authors review prospects for comprehensive immigration policy and border security policy

Handbook of Marriage and the Family Marvin B. Sussman, Suzanne K. Steinmetz, Gary W. Peterson, 2013-06-29 To know where we are going as scholars educators and practitioners in the field of marriage and family life we first need to know where we have been A perusal of early texts on marriage and family life provides some thought provoking insights into the accuracy of the saying what goes around comes around It is interesting to note who has been considered to be in a position to provide information on marriage and family life Included in the eclectic collection of texts we reviewed were ministers whose focus was on spirituality doctors who emphasized medical aspects of child and adult health and public health professionals and home economists concerned with fighting disease who emphasized cleanliness order fighting germs and eliminating rodents and insects There are also philosophers who drew from ancient texts when discussing family life and a count who assembled a group of German intellectual elites to address various topics An insightful essay of this type is by Marta Karlweis 1926 in which she notes There is no other fetish that society holds to so firmly as the conception woman with all its usual associations of infantilism and dependence The child requires protection is a minor and consequently a serf but above all it possesses no spiritual existence Neither doctorates or other distinctions nor the right to vote have as yet been able to dispel this sweet idea of the childishness of woman which man cherishes p
