

A Graduation Blessing

By Barbara D. MacAdam

Embarking on a journey which began some time ago, how could you have imagined all the things you'd come to know.

You learned to use each challenge as an opportunity, to overcome each problem - despite adversity.

It wasn't always easy keeping up with things at school, but YOU held on to your beliefs, and followed "the golden rule."

You found your voice & chose a path that honors who you are, and that, I think, may be your greatest lesson learned thus far.

For no one could be prouder of the person you've become, and that is why I'm confident that the best is yet to come.

May you never waste a moment wishing life was not unfair. Rather use the gifts God gave to you, to change the world out there.

Barbara D. MacAdam

Your Graduation signals us that you are on your way. So spread your wings and fly my dear, forever and a day!

The best is yet to come!

"The Purple Wishing Gate!"

When Graduation's Over, Learning Begins Roger Forsgren,2023-02-16 What They Didn't Teach You in School Lessons for STEM Students and Professionals Science Technology Engineering and Math education has been described as drinking from a firehose STEM students are required to absorb an overwhelming amount of technical information before they can earn their undergraduate degrees But it takes more than a thorough understanding of math science and engineering concepts to become successful in today's job market NASA's former Chief Knowledge Officer Roger Forsgren was responsible for training the agency's technical workforce and provides critical lessons learned for STEM students and graduates to build successful careers as they compete in today's workplace Being an introvert in an extroverts world You may certainly be the smartest person in the room but that may not be enough to convince a client make a persuasive presentation or effectively manage others Learn how to remain in your comfort zone yet still make a compelling impact by becoming an ambivert Communication Skills How to get your point across and express yourself in a cogent concise manner How to make yourself heard and respected in a group of experienced professionals Critical Thinking Avoid jumping to conclusions by training yourself to look beyond the obvious for the real clues to a problem or situation Ethics STEM professionals possess unique skills but such technical expertise also requires a sense of personal responsibility ensuring your talents are being put to the best use for yourself and for society Case studies have proven to be valuable learning tools and Roger Forsgren includes twelve compelling historical case studies that demonstrate the critical knowledge needed for STEM students as they progress through their careers

Introducing Feminist Perspectives on Pastoral Theology Zoe Bennett Moore,2002-12-12 This book introduces feminist perspectives in pastoral theology It is concerned both with pastoral care and practice and also with pastoral theology and theory It seeks to explore why the inclusion of women's experiences and of feminist perspectives is of vital importance to Christian pastoral practice and to a Christian understanding of God The book is designed for concerned practitioners and also has specifically in mind the needs of students of pastoral theology It begins with the lived experience of violence in Church and society moving through to the implications of this for our understanding of the human community and the divine

The Real Steele: The Unauthorized Biography of Dakota Johnson Marc Shapiro,2015-02-09 Those who don't believe in miracles should take a look at what brought Dakota Johnson from obscurity to the pinnacle of stardom as Anastasia Steele in the motion picture Fifty Shades of Grey. But who is Dakota Johnson? A surprisingly accomplished and driven actress. This is not some celebrity kid given a plum role because of her connections to old world Hollywood. In The Real Steele: The Unauthorized Biography of Dakota Johnson, you'll see how she went from a life of tranquility and yes, privilege at the feet of superstar parents Don Johnson and Melanie Griffith to a determination to succeed that has led her down many paths. First there was a career as an international model, then to growing recognition in a string of successful studio and independent films, and finally to her big break in Fifty Shades of Grey. Johnson has proven a literal force of nature, always moving forward and always using a natural sense of positive energy to dissuade the naysayers who would line up to take her down. Through exclusive interviews with childhood friends and acting coaches, Marc Shapiro has put Johnson's life and times much like the actress herself in a straightforward and always enticing biography.

God Cebu and War is presented. Before the Colors Fade documents relatives to illustrate life and background in the Philippines and the United States and to bring to life the experiences of a Filipino American boy. Asian Forests and their people and American Forests and their people are examined. Additional insights are given of a Navy Marine Corps Hospital Corpsman and the Vietnam War with surprising and unusual conclusions. Poignant and personal events are given along with Larry Carlson's recollections of Ray and Imogene Carlson and the early Cebu Christian Mission.
