The Call of the Wild and Selected Stories Jack London, 2009-08-04 The Call of the Wild is now a major motion picture starring Harrison Ford. Out of the white wilderness out of the Far North Jack London, one of America's most popular authors, drew the inspiration for his robust tales of perilous adventure and animal cunning. Swiftly paced and vividly written, the novel and five short stories included here capture the main theme of London's work: the law of the club and the fang man's instinctive reversion to primitive behavior when pitted against the brute force of nature. Includes The Call of the Wild, Diablerie, A Dog, An Odyssey of the North, To the Man on the Trail, To Build a Fire, and Love of Life.

Hunger for the Wild Michael L. Johnson, 2007 Americans have had an enduring yet ambivalent obsession with the West as both a place and a state of mind. Michael L. Johnson considers how that obsession originated, how it has determined attitudes toward and activities in the West, and how it has changed over the centuries.

Facing the Wild Chilla Bulbeck, 2012-06-25 What do wild animals mean to humans? Will they survive both rampant habitat loss and extinction caused by human encroachment and, as ecotourists, our enthusiasm for them? With ecotourism now the fastest growing segment of tourism and encounters with wild animals be it swimming with dolphins, going on safari or bird watching ever more popular, these are critical questions. Yet until now little has been known about why people crave encounters with wild animals and the meaning for the ecotourism industry, conservation efforts and society at large. Facing the Wild is the first serious empirical examination of why people seek out animals in their natural environment, what the desire for this experience tells us about the meanings of animals, nature, authenticity and wilderness in contemporary industrialized societies, and whether visitors change their environmental perspectives and behaviour as the custodians of wildlife parks would like them to. The book explores the contradictions and ambivalence that so many people experience in the presence of wild nature: in loving it we may diminish it and in the act of wanting to see it we may destroy it. Ultimately the book makes a case for respectful stewardship of a hybrid nature and provides insight for both practitioners and ecotourists alike.
