Evolution Education Around the Globe Hasan Deniz, Lisa A. Borgerding, 2018-06-21 This edited book provides a global view on evolution education. It describes the state of evolution education in different countries that are representative of geographical regions around the globe such as Eastern Europe, Western Europe, North Africa, South Africa, North America, South America, Middle East, Far East, South East Asia, Australia, and New Zealand. Studies in evolution education literature can be divided into three main categories: a) understanding the interrelationships among cognitive, affective, epistemological, and religious factors that are related to people's views about evolution; b) designing/implementing/evaluating evolution education curriculum that reflects contemporary evolution understanding; and c) reducing antievolutionary attitudes. This volume systematically summarizes the evolution education literature across these three categories for each country or geographical region. The individual chapters thus include common elements that facilitate a cross-cultural meta-analysis. Written for a primarily academic audience, this book provides a much-needed common background for future evolution education research across the globe.

Quality education Muchativugwa L. Hove, Martha Matashu, 2021-11-30 This book investigates the intersections between education, social justice, gendered violence, and human rights in South African schools and universities. The rich and multifarious tapestry of scholarship and literature emanating from South African classrooms provides a fascinating lens through which we can understand the complex consequences of the economies of education, social justice imperatives, gendered violence in the lives of women and children, and marginalised communities. The scholarship in the book challenges readers to imagine alternative futures predicated on the transformational capacity of a democratic South Africa. Contributors to this volume examine the many ways in which social justice and gendered violence mirror, express, project, and articulate the larger phenomenon of human rights violations in Africa and how, in turn, the discourse of human rights informs the ways in which we articulate, interrogate, conceptualise, enact, and interpret quality education. The book also wrestles with the linguistic contradictions and ambiguities in the articulation of quality education in public and private spaces. This book is essential reading for scholars seeking a solid grounding in exploring quality education, the instances of epistemic disobedience, the political implications of place and power, and human rights in theory and practice.

Self-directed learning research and its impact on educational practice Elsa Mentz, Roxanne Bailey, 2021-05-17 This scholarly book is the third volume in an NWU book series on self-directed learning and is devoted to self-directed learning research and its impact on educational practice. The importance of self-directed learning for learners in the 21st century to equip themselves with the necessary skills to take responsibility for their own learning for life cannot be over-emphasised. The target audience does not only consist of scholars in the field of self-directed learning in Higher Education and the Schooling sector but includes all scholars in the field of teaching and learning in all education and training sectors. The book contributes to the discourse on creating dispositions towards self-directed learning among all learners and adds to the latest body of scholarship in terms of self directed learning Although from different perspectives all chapters in the book are closely linked together around self directed learning as a central theme following on the work done in Volume 1 of this series Self Directed Learning for the 21st Century Implications for Higher Education to form a rich knowledge bank of work on self directed learning Religion and the COVID-19 Pandemic in Southern Africa Fortune Sibanda,Tenson Muyambo,Ezra Chitando,2022-02-24 This book investigates the role of religion in the context of the COVID 19 pandemic in Southern Africa Building on a diverse range of methodologies and disciplinary approaches the book reflects on how religion politics and health have interfaced in Southern African contexts when faced with the sudden public health emergency caused by the pandemic Religious actors have played a key role on the frontline throughout the pandemic sometimes posing roadblocks to public health messaging but more often deploying their resources to help provide effective and timely responses Drawing on case studies from African indigenous knowledge systems Islam Rastafari and various forms of Christianity this book provides important reflections on the role of religion in crisis response This book will be of interest to researchers across the fields of African Studies Health Politics and Religious Studies The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license Yearbook of International Organizations, 2013-2014 \(Volume 2\) Union Of International Associations,Union of International Associations,2013-06-21 The Yearbook of International Organizations provides the most extensive coverage of non profit international organizations currently available Detailed profiles of international non governmental and intergovernmental organizations IGO collected and documented by the Union of International Associations can be found here In addition to the history aims and activities of international organizations with their events publications and contact details the volumes of the Yearbook include networks between associations biographies of key people involved and extensive statistical data Volume 2 allows users to locate organizations by the country in which secretariats or members are located Life Science M.
