story of Pittsburgh's first public high school a social incubator in a largely segregated city that was highly even improbably successful throughout its 156 year existence Established in 1855 as Central High School and reorganized in 1916 Schenley High School was a model of innovative public education and an ongoing experiment in diversity Its graduates include Andy Warhol actor Bill Nunn and jazz virtuoso Earl Hines and its prestigious academic program and pensions lured such teachers as future Pulitzer Prize winner Willa Cather The subject of investment as well as destructive neglect the school reflects the history of the city of Pittsburgh and provides a study in both the best and worst of urban public education practices there and across the Rust Belt Integrated decades before Brown v Board of Education Schenley succumbed to default segregation during the white flight of the 1970s it rose again to prominence in the late 1980s when parents camped out in six day long lines to enroll their children in visionary superintendent Richard C Wallace's reinvigorated school Although the historic triangular building was a cornerstone of its North Oakland neighborhood and a showpiece for the city of Pittsburgh officials closed the school in 2008 citing over 50 million in necessary renovations a controversial event that captured national attention Schenley alumnus Jake Oresick tells this story through interviews historical documents and hundreds of first person accounts drawn from a community indelibly tied to the school A memorable important work of local and educational history his book is a case study of desegregation magnet education and the changing nature and legacies of America's oldest public schools

How the World Changed Social Media Daniel Miller, Elisabetta Costa, Nell Haynes, Tom McDonald, Razvan Nicolescu, Jolynna Sinanan, Juliano Spyer, Shriram Venkatraman, Xinyuan Wang, 2016-02-29 How the World Changed Social Media is the first book in Why We Post a book series that investigates the findings of anthropologists who each spent 15 months living in communities across the world This book offers a comparative analysis summarising the results of the research and explores the impact of social media on politics and gender education and commerce What is the result of the increased emphasis on visual communication Are we becoming more individual or more social Why is public social media so conservative Why does equality online fail to shift inequality offline How did memes become the moral police of the internet Supported by an introduction to the project's academic framework and theoretical terms that help to account for the findings the book argues that the only way to appreciate and understand something as intimate and ubiquitous as social media is to be immersed in the lives of the people who post Only then can we discover how people all around the world have already transformed social media in such unexpected ways and assess the consequences

Aesthetics of Repair Eugenia Kisin, 2024-07-05 Aesthetics of Repair analyses how the belongings called art are mobilized by Indigenous artists and cultural activists in British Columbia Canada Drawing on contemporary imaginaries of repair the book asks how diverse forms of collective reckoning with settler colonial harm resonate with urgent conversations about aesthetics of care in art The discussion moves across urban and remote spaces of display for Northwest Coast style Indigenous art including galleries and museums pipeline protests digital exhibitions an Indigenous run art school and a totem pole repatriation site The book focuses on the practices around art and artworks as forms of critical Indigenous philosophy arguing that art's efficacies in this moment draw on Indigenous protocols for enacting justice between persons, things and territories. Featuring examples of belongings that embody these social relations: a bentwood box made to house material memories, a totem pole whose return replenishes fish stocks, and a copper broken on the steps of the federal capital, each chapter shows how art is made to matter. Ultimately Aesthetics of Repair illuminates the collision of contemporary art with extractive economies and contested practices of resetting settler-Indigenous relations.

Philosophy of African American Studies Stephen

Ferguson, 2015-09-16 In this ground-breaking book, Stephen C. Ferguson addresses a seminal question that is too often ignored: What should be the philosophical basis for African American studies? The volume explores philosophical issues and problems in their relationship to Black studies. Ferguson shows that philosophy is not a sterile intellectual pursuit but a critical tool to gathering knowledge about the Black experience. Cultural idealism in various forms has become enormously influential as a framework for Black studies. Ferguson takes on the task of demonstrating how a Marxist philosophical perspective offers a productive and fruitful way of overcoming the limitations of idealism. Focusing on the hugely popular Afrocentric school of thought, this book's engaging discussion shows that the foundational arguments of cultural idealism are based on a series of analytical and historical misapprehensions. In turn, Ferguson argues for the centrality of the Black working class, both men and women, to Black Studies.

Donald Horne Ryan Cropp, 2023-08-01 The fascinating biography of a brilliant man who captured the nation's imagination and boldly showed Australians who we were and how we could change. In the 1960s, Donald Horne offered Australians a compelling reinterpretation of the Menzies years as a period of social and political inertia and mediocrity. His book The Lucky Country was profoundly influential and without doubt one of the most significant shots ever fired in Australia's endless culture war. Ryan Cropp's landmark biography positions Horne as an antipodean Orwell, a lively, independent and distinct literary voice searching for the temper of the people, accepting it and moving on from there. Through the eyes and unforgettable words of this preternaturally observant and articulate man, we see a recognisable modern Australia emerge. Shortlisted for the 2024 National Biography Award. A compulsive read about a writer who shaped the way we Australians think about ourselves. Judith Brett. Unmissable for anybody interested in the intellectual life of this country. Sean Kelly. Ryan Cropp's thoughtful life of Donald Horne charted the restless and provocative habits of his subject with care and elegance and animated decades of faded news and current affairs with colour and poise. Patrick Mullins. Australian Book Review. Books of the Year 2023. In his accomplished and insightful biography, Cropp has captured a full life well lived that was a tribute to the importance of paying attention and making a difference. Julianne Schultz. The Conversation. Conceptions Aditya Bharadwaj, 2016-08-01 Infertility and assisted reproductive technologies in India lie at the confluence of multiple cultural conceptions. These conceptions are key to understanding the burgeoning spread of assisted reproductive technologies and the social implications of infertility and childlessness in India. This longitudinal study is situated in a number of diverse locales which when taken together unravel the complex nature of infertility and assisted conception in contemporary India

Holocaust Escapees and Global Development David Simon, 2019-01-15 The thousands uprooted and displaced by the Holocaust had a profound cultural impact on the countries in which they sought refuge with numerous Holocaust escapees attaining prominence as scientists writers filmmakers and artists But what is less well known is the way in which this refugee diaspora shaped the scholarly culture of their new found homes and international policy In this unique work David Simon explores the pioneering role played by mostly Jewish refugee scholars in the creation of development studies and practice following the Second World War and what we can learn about the discipline by examining the social and intellectual history of its early practitioners Through in depth interviews with key figures and their relatives Simon considers how the escapees experiences impacted their scholarship showing how they played a key role in shaping their belief that development really did hold the potential to make a better world free from the horrors of war genocide and discrimination they had experienced under Nazi rule In the process he casts valuable new light on the origins and evolution of development studies policy and practice from this formative postwar period to the present

The Myth of Millionaire Tax Flight Cristobal Young, 2023-05-25 An investigation based on top earners IRS returns and other data A tour de force that should be read by policymakers and taxpayers everywhere Douglas S Massey Princeton University In this age of globalization many countries and U S states are worried about the tax flight of the rich As income inequality grows and U S states consider raising taxes on their wealthiest residents there is a palpable concern that these high rollers will board their private jets and fly away taking their wealth with them Many assume that the importance of location to a person s success is at an all time low Cristobal Young however makes the argument that location is very important to the world s richest people Frequently he says place has a great deal to do with how they make their millions In The Myth of Millionaire Tax Flight Young examines a trove of data on millionaires and billionaires confidential tax returns Forbes lists and census records and distills down surprising insights While economic elites have the resources and capacity to flee high tax places their actual migration is surprisingly limited For the rich ongoing economic potential is tied to the place where they become successful often where they are powerful insiders and that success ultimately diminishes both the incentive and desire to migrate This important book debunks a powerful idea that has driven fiscal policy for years and in doing so it clears the way for a new era Millionaire taxes Young argues could give states the funds to pay for infrastructure education and other social programs to attract a group of people who are much more mobile the younger generation An example of public sociology par excellence Contemporary Sociology With grace sophistication and unprecedented data this important book feeds public debates on inequality public policy and the health of American democracy Martin Gilens author of Affluence and Influence Military Review ,2016 Professional Journal of the United States Army ,2016-11

Giordano,2025-02-11 From climate change to COVID 19 to reproductive justice there has been deep political polarization around science Labs of Our Own provides a unique entry point into these twenty first century science wars by focusing on our affective relationships to science The book delves into various sites where scientists teachers artists and activists claim to create more democratic access to science from DIY biology community labs to feminist classrooms to activist science practitioners The reader will find that these claims for and attempts at democratic sciences not only impact what counts as science and who counts as a scientist but reconfigure who is included in the proper public Instead of arguing for a knee jerk defense of science against right wing attacks Labs of Our Own builds the case for a feminist antiracist decolonial queer science tinkering practice that intentionally politically and ethically acts to produce new challenges to the definition and boundaries of the human Jallad Tasneem Khalil,2015-12-20 Extrajudicial execution enforced disappearance and torture these are the tools used by death squads across South Asia Across the region human rights abuses are perpetrated behind the closed doors by the jallad or hangmen of secret detention facilities while death squads roam the streets with impunity By using first hand experience and newly discovered sources Tasneem Khalil connects these abuses to a disturbing fact that Bangladesh India Nepal Pakistan and Sri Lanka are national security states connected to an international system of state terror patronised by sponsors like the United States the United Kingdom China and Israel Looking at infamous enforcers such as The Rapid Action Battalion of Bangladesh the encounter specialists of India army units of Nepal the Frontier Corps of Pakistan and the men in white vans of Sri Lanka Khalil reveals a huge system of specialists in violence deployed by the state in campaigns of state terror a bloody logic of domination and repression that lies at the very core of statecraft in South Asia

Savage Ecology Jairus Victor Grove,2019-08-16 Jairus Victor Grove contends that we live in a world made by war In Savage Ecology he offers an ecological theory of geopolitics that argues that contemporary global crises are better understood when considered within the larger history of international politics Infusing international relations with the theoretical interventions of fields ranging from new materialism to political theory Grove shows how political violence is the principal force behind climate change mass extinction slavery genocide extractive capitalism and other catastrophes Grove analyzes a variety of subjects from improvised explosive devices and drones to artificial intelligence and brain science to outline how geopolitics is the violent pursuit of a way of living that comes at the expense of others Pointing out that much of the damage being done to the earth and its inhabitants stems from colonialism Grove suggests that the Anthropocene may be better described by the term Eurocene The key to changing the planet s trajectory Grove proposes begins by acknowledging both the earth shaping force of geopolitical violence and the demands apocalypses make for fashioning new ways of living

Tug of War Jocelyn Wills, 2017-09-04 Selling Earth observation satellites on their abilities to predict and limit adverse environmental change politicians business leaders the media and technology enthusiasts have spent sixty years arguing that space exploration can create a more peaceful prosperous world Capitalist states have also socialized the risk and privatized the profits of the commercial space industry by convincing taxpayers to fund surveillance technologies as necessary components of sovereignty freedom and democracy Jocelyn Wills's Tug of War reminds us that colonizing the cosmos has not only accelerated the arms race but also encouraged government contractors to compete for the military and commercial spoils of surveillance Although Canadians prefer to celebrate their role as purveyors of peaceful space applications Canada has played a pivotal part in the expansion of neoliberal policies and surveillance networks that now encircle the globe primarily as a political ally of the United States and component supplier for its military industrial complex Tracing the forty five year history of Canada's largest space company MacDonald Dettwiler and Associates MDA through the lens of surveillance studies and a trove of oral history transcripts government documents trade journals and other sources Wills places capitalism's imperial ambitions squarely at the centre of Canada US relations and the privatization of the Canadian political economy Tug of War confronts the mythic lure of technological progress and the ways in which those who profess little interest in war rationalize their leap into military contracting by avoiding the moral and political implications of their work
