

Guided Reading Activity B-2: Electing the President

OBJECTIVES: Use the information on your worksheet to complete the diagrams.

THE ELECTORAL COLLEGE SYSTEM

In 1788	In 1808	Today
Each state elects electors equal in the number of senators and representatives. The Electoral College meets to elect the president in their state capital. The electors with the most votes become president and the next state elects electors to elect the president.	The 12th Amendment requires electors to cast separate ballots for president and vice president. It also requires electors to sign a certificate of votes.	Preside the state elects electors to elect the president and vice president. Each state elects electors to elect the president. The Electoral College meets to elect the president and the next state elects electors to elect the president.

OBJECTIVES: Use the information on your worksheet to complete the diagrams.
