Drugs, Violence and Latin America Joseph Patteson, 2021-12-01 This book undertakes a psychotropic analysis of texts that deal with the violence of drug trafficking and interdiction especially in Mexico While most critics of so called narcoculture have either focused on an aesthetic sobriety in these works or discounted them altogether as exploitative and unworthy of serious attention Drugs Violence and Latin America illuminates how such work may reflect and intervene in global networks of intoxication Theorizing a dialectics of intoxication that illustrates how psychotropy may either solidify or destabilize the self and its relationship to the other it proposes that these tendencies influence human behavior in distinct ways and are leveraged for social control within both licit and illicit economies A consideration of a countercultural genealogy in Latin America provides a contrastive psychotropic context for contemporary novels that exposes links between narcoviolence and consumerism challenging our addictions of thought and feeling about ourselves and our relationships to drugs and narco violence Bibliografía española ,1993 Dados e idéias ,1990 Bibliografia brasileira ,1993
