Mestizaje and Globalization Stefanie Wickstrom, Philip D. Young, 2014-11-20 Mestizaje and Globalization contributes to an emerging multidisciplinary effort to explore how identities are imposed negotiated and reconstructed The volume offers a comprehensive and empirically diverse collection of insights that look beyond nationalistic mestizaje projects to a diversity of local concepts understandings and resistance with particular attention to cases in Latin America and the United States

Transatlantic, Transcultural, and Transnational Dialogues on Identity, Culture, and Migration Lori Celaya, Sonja Stephenson Watson, 2021-11-04 Transatlantic Transcultural and Transnational Dialogues on Identity Culture and Migration analyzes the diasporic experiences of migratory and postcolonial subjects through the lenses of cultural studies critical race theory narrative theory and border studies These narratives cover the United States the U S Mexico border the Hispanophone Caribbean and the Iberian Peninsula and illustrate a shared diasporic experience across the Atlantic Through a transatlantic transcultural and transnational lens this volume brings together essays on literature film and music from disparate geographic areas Spain Cuba and Jamaica the U S Mexico border and Colombia Throughout the volume the contributors explore intertextual transatlantic dialogues and migratory experiences of diasporic subjects and queer subjectivities The chapters also examine the use of language to preserve Latinx culture colonial and Spanish cultural exchanges border identities and race gender identity and cultural production In turn these diasporic experiences result from transatlantic transcultural and transnational phenomena that converge in a globalized society and aid in questioning the artificial boundaries of nation states

Representations of China in Latin American Literature \(1987-2016\) Maria Montt Strabucchi, 2023-11-15 An Open Access edition of this book is available on the Liverpool University Press website and the OAPEN library as part of the Opening the Future project with COPIM Representations of China in Latin American Literature 1987 2016 analyses contemporary Latin American novels in which China is the main theme Using China as a multidimensional term it explores how the novels both highlight and undermine assumptions about China that have shaped Latin America s understanding of China and shows China to be a kind of literary imaginary third term which reframes Latin American discourses of alterity On one level it argues that these texts play with the way that China stands in as a wandering signifier and as a metonym for Asia a gesture that essentialises it as an unchanging other On another level it argues that the novels employment of China resists essentialist constructions of identity China is thus shown to be serving as a concept which allows for criticism of the construction of fetishized otherness and of the exclusion inherent in essentialist discourses of identity The book presents and analyses the depiction of an imaginary of China which is arguably performative but which discloses the tropes and themes which may be both established and subverted in the novels Chapter One examines the way in which China is represented and constructed in Latin American novels where this country is a setting for their stories The novels studied in Chapter Two are linked to the presence of Chinese communities in Latin America The final chapter examines novels whose main theme is travel to contemporary China Ultimately in the novels studied in this book China serves as a concept through which essentialist notions of identity are critiqued Urban Mountain Beings Kathleen S. Fine-Dare,2019-12-04 Urban Mountain Beings is an ethnographic and historically grounded study of recognition strategies and ethnogenesis carried out on the flanks of Mt Pichincha in Quito Ecuador Kathleen S Fine Dare employs feminist geographical and Indigenous pedagogical frameworks to illustrate how histories of exclusion have created attitudes and policies that treat Native peoples as out of place and time in cities Fine Dare concentrates on two overlapping contexts for Indigenous vindication the Yumbada of Cotacollao an ancestral performance through which mountain and other spirits are called into the urban plaza and Casa Kinde Hummingbird House a cultural organization that engages in workshops filmmaking photography commerce community education and the formation of alliances with anthropologists activists filmmakers engineers and teachers Political Struggle in Latin America Craig L. Arceneaux,2022-09-23 This book discusses in an accessible way how emerging globalizing processes are setting the stage for new forms of social and political struggle in Latin America with increased involvement of multilateral and foreign actors and impacts of global political populism and populist social media These are opening up new strategies and opportunities for activists and offer new arenas of contestation for international organizations The book analyzes the struggles of select marginalized groups specifically the urban poor indigenous groups women s and LGBTQ groups and the vulnerable middle classes Each case is examined in the context of a distinct struggle for citizenship identity inclusion and or the rule of law The study offers a broad historical analysis of the region through the context of these struggles It tackles some of the most pressing issues surrounding the current politics of Latin America including identity politics cultural appropriation social mobilization and protest neoliberal reform reproductive rights and sexual autonomy corruption the influence of religion and patriarchy crime and social justice inequality and poverty the informal economy and urban exclusion In doing so it details not only how these are not new struggles but also how they have evolved over time In the contemporary period the book explores how the actors as well as character of their struggle are changing through a globalized interchange of ideas and processes The book covers a wide geographical area in Latin America with a particular focus on countries with Spanish or Portuguese colonial backgrounds and is for researchers students and laypersons interested in new globalizing forces affecting Latin American society and polity Gastropolitics and the Specter of Race María Elena García,2021-03-15 In recent years Peru has transformed from a war torn country to a global high end culinary destination Connecting chefs state agencies global capital and Indigenous producers this gastronomic revolution makes powerful claims food unites Peruvians dissolves racial antagonisms and fuels development Gastropolitics and the Specter of Race critically evaluates these claims and tracks the emergence of Peruvian gastropolitics a biopolitical and aesthetic set of practices that reinscribe dominant racial and gendered orders Through critical readings of high end menus and ethnographic analysis of culinary festivals guinea pig production and national branding campaigns this work explores the intersections of race species and capital to reveal links between gastronomy and violence in Peru Hemispheric Indigeneities Miléna Santoro, Erick D. Langer, 2018-11-01 Hemispheric Indigeneities is a critical anthology that brings together indigenous and nonindigenous scholars specializing in the Andes Mesoamerica and Canada The overarching theme is the changing understanding of indigeneity from first contact to the contemporary period in three of the world's major regions of indigenous peoples Although the terms indio, indigène and indian only exist in Spanish French and English respectively because of European conquest and colonization indigenous peoples have appropriated or changed this terminology in ways that reflect their shifting self identifications and aspirations As the essays in this volume demonstrate this process constantly transformed the relation of Native peoples in the Americas to other peoples and the state This volume's presentation of various factors geographical temporal and cross cultural provide illuminating contributions to the burgeoning field of hemispheric indigenous studies Hemispheric Indigeneities explores indigenous agency and shows that what it means to be indigenous was and is mutable It also demonstrates that self identification evolves in response to the relationship between indigenous peoples and the state The contributors analyze the conceptions of what indigeneity meant means today or could come to mean tomorrow Elisabeth Elliot Lucy S. R. Austen, 2023-05-01 An In Depth Biography on the Life and Work of Missionary Elisabeth Elliot Elisabeth Elliot 1926-2015 is one of the most widely known Christians of the twentieth and twenty first centuries After the death of her husband Jim and four other missionaries at the hands of Waorani tribesmen in Ecuador Elliot famously returned to live among the same people who had killed her husband Her legacy however extends far beyond these events In the years that followed Elliot became a prolific writer and speaker touching the lives of countless people around the world In this single volume biography Lucy S R Austen takes readers on an in depth journey through the life of Elisabeth Elliot her birth to missionary parents her courtship and marriage to Jim Elliot her missions work in Ecuador and her private life and public work after she returned to the United States Through Elliot's example of love for God and obedience to his commands readers will ponder what it means to follow Jesus Single Volume Biography on Elisabeth Elliot Author Lucy S R Austen explores Elliot's professional articles books and radio programs as well as personal scrapbooks journals and letters Engaging Tells the complex and moving life story of one of the most well known Christian missionaries A Great Resource for Students Thoroughly researched book provides information about Elliot beyond her work with the Waorani people and her first husband's death The Routledge Handbook of CoFuturisms Taryne Jade Taylor, Isiah Lavender III, Grace L. Dillon, Bodhisattva Chattopadhyay, 2023-10-30 The Routledge Handbook of CoFuturisms delivers a new inclusive examination of science fiction from close analyses of single texts to large scale movements providing readers with decolonized models of the future including print media race gender and social justice This comprehensive overview of the field explores representations of possible futures arising from non Western cultures and ethnic histories that disrupt the imperial gaze In four parts The Routledge Handbook of CoFuturisms considers the look of futures from the margins foregrounding the issues of Indigenous groups racial ethnic religious and sexual minorities and any people whose stakes in the global order of envisioning futures are generally constrained due to the mechanics of our contemporary world The book extends current discussions in the area looking at cutting edge developments in the discipline of science fiction and diverse futurisms as a whole Offering a dynamic mix of approaches and expansive perspectives this volume will appeal to academics and researchers seeking to orient their own interventions into broader contexts The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Sovereignty Unhinged Deborah A. Thomas, Joseph Masco, 2023-01-18 Sovereignty Unhinged theorizes sovereignty beyond the typical understandings of action control and the nation state Rather than engaging with the geopolitical realities of the present the contributors consider sovereignty from the perspective of how it is lived and enacted in everyday practice and how it reflects people's aspirations for new futures In a series of ethnographic case studies ranging from the Americas to the Middle East to South Asia they examine the means of avoiding the political and historical capture that make one complicit with sovereign authority rather than creating the conditions of possibility to confront it The contributors attend to the affective dimensions of these practices of world building to illuminate the epistemological ontological and transnational entanglements that produce a sense of what is possible They also trace how sovereignty is activated and deactivated over the course of a lifetime within the struggle of the everyday In so doing they outline how individuals create and enact forms of sovereignty that allow them to endure fast and slow forms of violence while embracing endless opportunities for building new worlds Contributors Alex Blanchette Yarimar Bonilla Jessica Cattelino Mar a Elena Garc a Akhil Gupta Lochlann Jain Purnima Mankekar Joseph Masco Michael Ralph Danilyn Rutherford Arjun Shankar Kristen L Simmons Deborah A Thomas Leniqueca A Welcome Kaya Naomi Williams Jessica Winegar

Destrucción y culto Darío Velandia Onofre, 2021-03-01 Durante los procesos de colonización en diversos territorios de América la destrucción y el culto de imágenes sagradas fueron dos políticas estipuladas por las instituciones de poder para someter comunidades y en algunos casos las personas colonizadas las adoptaron como mecanismo de resistencia Sin dejar de lado las diferencias entre una y otra política el acto violento en contra de una imagen y la adoración de esta comparten una creencia por el poder de la imagen son dos caras de una misma moneda Destrucción y culto busca indagar esas políticas y mirar cómo están íntimamente ligadas a procesos de sometimiento propios de una política imperial y colonial A partir de diversos casos de estudio trasatlánticos dibuja un panorama rico en matices que ponen en evidencia la complejidad de la cultura visual de los siglos XVI y XVII en los territorios de la Corona española

Imágenes transpácificas Tong Wu, 2022-12-13 En este estudio se analiza la imagen de los personajes chinos en la literatura latinoamericana del siglo XXI Se pretende por un lado analizar la representación de los perfiles de este país y por otro resumir las similitudes y diferencias entre las imágenes de los personajes así como su función y posible razón Para conseguir

este objetivo se han elegido seis obras a partir de las cuales se consideran estas cuestiones que se han dividido en dos clases la de los chinos percibidos por otro sujeto desde dentro o desde fuera de la cultura china Es decir si es tratado por escritores chinos o de origen chino con un conocimiento profundo de su idiosincrasia o si se ve configurado por autores sin relación directa con esta comunidad migrante y por tanto con poco conocimiento efectivo sobre ella Al final se añade una reflexión previa a las conclusiones finales para presentar tres obras recientes con las que extendemos el corpus hasta el presente o justo antes de que se desatara la pandemia de la COVID 19 en el país asiático En Imágenes transpacificas se puede contemplar desde dos diferentes perspectivas la imagen de los chinos en novelas más novedosas en el mundo hispanohablante

The Human Face of Globalization Jacques Audinet, 2004-11-20 International immigration massive migrations economic globalization and a world wide communications revolution have brought about a mixing of races cultures and lifestyles unprecedented in human history What are the implications of this phenomenon What options present themselves_a battle of cultures for power a move toward communitarian cooperation or something new the evolution of racially and culturally mixed societies Anthropologist and sociologist Jacques Audinet proposes an alternative to culture wars and simple multiculturalism as he explores the history and evolution of mestizaje the mixing of races and cultures resulting in a third and new force able to ease the tensions between the original two Audinet reviews the tragic history of imperial and colonial conquests and traces the growth of mestizaje especially stimulated by literature music and sports Audinet argues that instead of chasing or preserving the illusion of pure races we need to face the shifting boundaries of peoples and cultures He acknowledges the uncertainty of the changes but emphasizes the essential role that mestizaje can play in the avoidance of racial and cultural clashes while pursuing equality as part of the promise of a democratic society

Power/knowledge/pedagogy Dennis Carlson, 2018-03-05 The essays in this volume explore the educational implications of unsettling shifts in contemporary culture associated with postmodernism These shifts include the fragmentation of established power blocs the emergence of a politics of identity growing inequalities between the haves and the have nots in a new global economy and the rise in influence of popular culture in defining who we are In the academy postmodernism has been associated with the emergence of new theoretical perspectives that are unsettling the way we think about education These shifts the authors suggest are deeply contradictory and may lead in divergent political directions some of them quite dangerous Power Knowledge Pedagogy examines these issues with regard to four broad domains of educational inquiry state educational policy and curriculum reform student identity formation the curriculum as a text and critical pedagogy The book contributes to the dialogue on the forging of a new commonsense discourse on democratic educational renewal attuned to the changing times in which we live

Latin American Perspectives on Globalization Mario Sáenz, 2002-10-23 From the most prominent thinkers in Latin American philosophy literature politics and social science comes a challenge to conventional theories of globalization The contributors to this volume imagine a discourse in which revolution is defined not as a temporalized march of progress or takeover of state power but as a movement for local control that upholds standards of material conditions for human dignity Essays on identity equality and ethics propose models of transcultural and intercultural relations that replace center periphery or world systems approaches they impel us to focus on building dialogic relationships rather than on accommodating universalized paradigms Ultimately suggesting a reconstruction of the world in terms of the interests of one of the peripheral regions of the world Latin American Perspectives on Globalization argues with cogency and urgency that no one within contemporary globalization debates can afford to ignore the Latin American philosophical tradition Mujeres indígenas migrantes Eugenia, Rodríguez Blanco, 2021-01-21 Las experiencias vividas por las mujeres indígenas que salen de sus comunidades a trabajar en las ciudades no permiten hablar de cambios a mejor sino más bien de cierta continuidad y resignificación de la pobreza de la desigualdad de género y étnica en los nuevos territorios Este libro contiene un análisis sobre la migración femenina indígena contemporánea que tiene como destino los principales lugares urbanos en Panamá Un trabajo etnográfico que recoge vivencias y significados que ellas mismas dan al hecho de migrar a las ciudades Conocer los principales patrones y causas de esa particular migración así como las condiciones de vida y trabajo en los lugares de destino es objeto central de este estudio Además de ser una apuesta de la autora por la antropología feminista esta publicación brinda una revisión bibliográfica y documental sobre el tema y un resumen de la historia de las migraciones indígena y embera con destino a ciudades Las nuevas identidades étnicas indígenas en territorio urbano son una muestra de la resistencia de estos pueblos ante las nuevas formas de colonización y racismo en sociedades marcadas por múltiples sistemas de dominación Vivir Bien as an Alternative to Neoliberal Globalization Eija Ranta, 2018-03-09 Presenting an ethnographic account of the emergence and application of critical political alternatives in the Global South this book analyses the opportunities and challenges of decolonizing and transforming a modern hierarchical and globally immersed nation state on the basis of indigenous terminologies Alternative development paradigms that represent values including justice pluralism democracy and a sustainable relationship to nature tend to emerge in response to and often opposed to the neoliberal globalization Through a focus on the empirical case of the notion of Vivir Bien Living Well as a critical cultural and ecological paradigm Ranta demonstrates how indigeneity indigenous peoples discourses cultural ideas and worldviews has become such a denominator in the construction of local political and policy alternatives More widely the author seeks to map conditions for and the challenges of radical political projects that aim to counteract neoliberal globalization and Western hegemony in defining development This book will appeal to critical academic scholars development practitioners and social activists aiming to come to grips with the complexity of processes of progressive social change in our contemporary global world

Las Abejas Marco Tavanti, 2014-01-27 Las Abejas came to be known by the international community as the civil counterpart to the neozapatista movements and as a Christian pacifist movement This book presents the voices of Las Abejas and of numerous collaborators alongside an innovative theoretical analysis of the dynamics of identity construction The uniqueness of this study is the analysis of the role of international human rights observers in relation to indigenous communities in resistance In this fascinating study Marco Tavanti explains how cultural religious political human rights and nonviolent frameworks combine in a syncretic identity of resistance     Spirit Outside the Gate Oscar

García-Johnson,2019-07-23 Oscar Garc a Johnson explores a new grammar for the study of theology and mission in global Christianity especially in Latin America Moving to recover important elements in ancestral traditions of the Americas he discerns pneumatological continuity between the pre Columbian and post Columbian communities With an interdisciplinary narrative approach this work offers a constructive theology of mission for the church in global contexts     Political

Phenomenology Hwa Yol Jung,Lester Embree,2016-06-13 This volume presents political phenomenology as a new specialty in western philosophical and political thought that is post classical post Machiavellian and post behavioral It draws on history and sets the agenda for future explorations of political issues It discloses crossroads between ethics and politics and explores border crossing issues All the essays in this volume challenge existing ideas of politics significantly As such they open new ways for further explorations BY future generations of phenomenologists and non phenomenologists alike Moreover the comprehensive chronological bibliography is unprecedented and provides not only an excellent picture of what phenomenologists have already done but also a guide for the future
