Crime and Spy Jazz on Screen Since 1971 Derrick Bang, 2020-04-01 Henry Mancini's Peter Gunn theme Lalo Schiffrin's Mission Impossible theme Isaac Hayes theme from Shaft These iconic melodies have remained a part of the pop culture landscape since their debuts back when movie studios and TV production companies employed full orchestral ensembles to provide a jazz backdrop for the suspenseful adventures of secret agents private detectives cops spies and heist minded criminals Hundreds of additional films and television shows made from the mid 1950s and beyond have been propelled by similarly swinging title themes and underscores many of which have undeservedly faded into obscurity This meticulously researched book begins with Hayes game changing music for Shaft and honors the careers of traditional jazz composers who as the 1970s gave way to the 80s and beyond resolutely battled against the pernicious influx of synth jukebox scores and a growing corporate disinterest in lavish ensembles Fans frustrated by the lack of attention paid to jazz soundtrack composers including Mort Stevens Laurie Johnson Mike Post Earle Hagen David Shire Elmer Bernstein and many many others will find solace in these pages along with all the information needed to enhance one's music library But this is only half the story the saga's origins are discussed in this book's companion volume Crime and Action Jazz on Screen 1950-1970

Essays on Ethics and Feminism Sabina Lovibond, 2015 Essays on Ethics and Feminism is a selection of the shorter writings of Sabina Lovibond one of the most distinctive voices in contemporary philosophy since the 1980s This work lays claim to a broad thematic unity based on its affiliation to the realist or rationalist traditions in moral philosophy Some of the essays seek to clarify the relation of feminism to these traditions and to current anti-rationalist tendencies especially important here are the status and prospects of normativity autonomy purposive action and other conceptual resources for critical thinking which were called into question over roughly the last third of the twentieth century not least by feminist writers heedful of continental European developments All of the essays are concerned with fundamental ethical questions including but not restricted to questions of feminist ethics such as the nature of value and the good life moral requirements and their associated epistemology character formation and the ideological critique of the processes by which this is effected The essays deploy ideas drawn both from Platonic Aristotelian and from Kantian ethics as well as from the later philosophy of Wittgenstein However they also attempt to respond to the destabilizing impact of Nietzschean and postmodernist thought The writing is addressed to those engaged in or with some interest in academic philosophy and draws on a wide range of philosophical source materials but avoids unnecessary technicality In the same way it should appeal to those with a pre-existing interest in academic feminism and in some forms of feminist activism but could also serve to draw new readers into the domain of feminist thought
