Abstract

11. Candidates are advised to write on their answer paper.
12. The answer sheet contains the questions and the space in which the answer should be independent. Part (b) should be given for the candidate's own interpretation.
13. Following each the candidate should be informed of the candidate's own given credit for relevant cases, even if they are not using their own space.
14. The candidate should be informed of the results of their own given (interpretation of) interpretation.
15. The candidate should be informed of the results of their own given (interpretation of) interpretation.
