

Paper 2 Question 5

EXAMPLE ARTICLE

Below is an example question and student response for Paper 2 Question 5. It is for an ARTICLE to be featured in a student magazine. The candidate response would do very well if it was a real exam question (it would probably get 36/40). Your job is to work out what makes it so good!

Q5 "Everyone knows that you can't learn for GCSE English. When it comes to the exams, you either know it or you don't. This is especially the case if you are doing it for the second or third time – you already know what you're expected to do anyway!"

Write an article for a student online magazine, in which you argue your point of view of this statement.

(14 marks for content and organisation
10 marks for technical accuracy)
[40 marks]

You are advised to plan your answer to question 5 before you start to write.

Fail to Prepare, Prepare to Fail!

I overheard a conversation in the canteen the other day. Honestly couldn't believe what it was hearing. A student was telling his friends that you can't prepare for English, and that there was no point doing any revision. I was taking a big gulp from a bottle of the time – let me tell you, it almost came back out of my mouth like a Fanta fountain. I think I walked out of the canteen with that exaggerated look on my face that teachers often have. You know the one...

Course I agreed? I will tell you – defeated, baffled, a bit lost. So the answer was – don't do anything! Do nothing and it will all go away (except it didn't), of course.

Regardless, I stopped going to classes, stopped doing the assignments, stopped thinking about English. It felt like I was in a dream – just a dream. I knew that I was going to get into trouble about my attendance, and there was still the exam and honest fact that English wasn't going anywhere – yet I still found great reasons not to go to class, not to be bothered, not to prepare.

Then someone recently knocked me to my senses. It was the same friend I mentioned earlier.

He got a 3 last year. He was really close to a 4 so his teacher put him in for the November exam. He knew that this time had to be the last time. He knew that if he had to do this exam again he would feel like finding the nearest cliff and jumping off it. He knew that he had to relax and smash it. In other words, he had to put himself together (as my mum would say).

So, what did he do? He prepared to pass and not to fail. Carl's revision, revision, revision – he did it. About the way to sit his classes. He did independent study. That was the key to it, so he said. He put time aside each week – and he called it "English time".

He did so much practice work in his "English time" that he told me his teacher used to run away from him if she saw him in the corridor because she thought he was bringing her even more work to mark. He was just so determined that his exam wasn't going to be the boys of him anymore but he also knew that it wouldn't just miraculously happen. So he trusted himself and put the work in.

The real results came out last week... He got a Grade 5. Yes, a 5. He conquered his fear of failure and got what he needed, did better than he expected, killed the exam stone dead. Job done.

So I'm going to do like him and not those students in the canteen. Yes, it's going to take time but, you know what? It's not too late.

That time, I'm going to prepare to PASS!

Note: The example candidate response is given only to show the way.
