2. You need to refer to Source A and Source B for this question.

Both writers are accompanied by another person on their adventure: Simon in Source A, and Marius in Source B.

Use details from both sources to write a summary of what you understand about the differences between the two companions, Simon and Marius.

[8 marks]

3-4 marks/Level 5

In Source A the writer is rude about his companion and doesn't seem to like him, whereas in Source B the writer likes, and is thankful for, her companion. In Source A, the writer says he "swore Simon's character to the devil" showing how upset he was with him. On the other hand, the writer in Source B comments that "Marius had kindly put my rug in a corner of the floor" showing that she appreciated the things he did for her.

In Source A, the writer describes his companion causing him pain and seeming to not care whereas in Source B the writer identifies that the companion takes a lot of care for her. In Source A, the writer notes that "Simon let me slide faster than I had expected and, despite my cries of alarm and pain, he had kept the pace of descent going" showing that he is not thinking carefully about the writer's safety. However in Source B, the writer identifies that "There were two places where Marius literally pulled me up like a parcel" showing the extra care and attention he is giving to the writer in comparison.

5-6 marks/Level 7

Both writers describe a close relationship with the person they are climbing with. However in Source A the writer begins to hate Simon whereas in Source B the writer is always thankful for Marius' support. In Source A, the writer describes that he "swore Simon's character to the devil" during the painful climb, even though he was trying to help him. In a different way, the writer of Source B explains that she "found that Marius had Information Retrieval: A Health and Biomedical Perspective William Hersh, 2008-12-19 This series is directed to healthcare professionals who are leading the transformation of health care by using information and knowledge to advance the quality of patient care. Launched in 1988 as Computers in Health Care, the series offers a broad range of titles; some are addressed to specific professions such as nursing, medicine, and health administration; others to special areas of practice such as trauma and radiology. Still other books in this series focus on interdisciplinary issues such as the computer-based patient record, electronic health records, and networked healthcare systems. Renamed Health Informatics in 1998 to reflect the rapid evolution in the discipline, now known as health informatics, the series continues to add titles that contribute to the evolution of the field. In this series, eminent experts serving as editors or authors offer their accounts of innovation in health informatics. Increasingly, these accounts go beyond hardware and software to address the role of information in enhancing the transformation of healthcare delivery systems around the world The series also increasingly focuses on peopleware and the organizational behavioral and societal changes that accompany the diffusion of information technology in health services environments
