

Expository Writing

Expository writing is informational writing. It often times explains how or tells why about a topic.

Characteristics of Expository Writing

Introduction	Expository writing needs an introduction. The introduction introduces the reader to the topic and states the main idea, thesis statement, or topic sentence.
Facts and Details	The body of expository writing includes facts and details. Each paragraph should have a topic sentence or main idea and then 3-4 supporting sentences that give details and examples about the main idea.
Conclusion	Expository writing needs a conclusion. This is the final paragraph and it gives the author one more opportunity to state the main idea.
Organization	Strong authors will use one of the non-fiction text structures to help organize their writing (problem and solution, compare and contrast, description, sequence, cause and effect).

The author's purpose of expository writing is to inform.

Nonfiction Reading Comprehension Grade 3 Teacher Created Resources,2002-09 After reading brief nonfiction passages about science geography or history topics students answer multiple choice and short answer questions to build seven essential comprehension skills Literacy Lessons, K-8 Helen Hoffner,2010-08-17 Literacy Lessons K 8 enables teachers to meet IRA and McRel standards with a broad spectrum of instructional techniques that address all areas of the language arts reading writing speaking listening and viewing The book includes lesson plans and activities as well as projects that will engage and motivate students Students will also learn how to find information on a topic they are interested in and how to incorporate their own experiences into activities that meet standards Busy teachers will also find Quick and inexpensive means of creating costumes and props for storytelling Ideas to tempt families to engage in storytelling at home References to K 8 literature to link instruction with authentic text Differentiation techniques for ELLs as well as for students who are working above or below grade level expectations Teachers are always looking for materials that make their job easier and this book provides everything needed to teach literacy lessons effectively , Upper Elementary Reading Lessons Marilyn J. Chambliss,Linda Valli,2011-07-16 Engaging students in worthwhile learning requires more than a knowledge of underlying principles of good teaching It demands considerable practice as well as images of what good teaching in particular situations and for particular purposes might look like This volume provides these images These cases were written from authentic unrehearsed lessons taught by upper elementary classroom teachers to diverse groups of real students in intact classrooms Each lesson contains elements of sound instructional practice from which both preservice and in service teachers can benefit Cases are not meant to be ideal but rather to evoke ways of seeing and thinking about good classroom instruction for all learners Accompanied by analytic commentaries from experts representing a particular perspective such as special education and ESOL these unrehearsed cases are written with the understanding that teaching is complex and multi dimensional The cases are drawn from a four year study of 4th and 5th grade mathematics instruction of culturally diverse classrooms with relatively high rates of students from low income families Reading Assessment and Instruction for All Learners Jeanne Shay Schumm,2006-05-04 Weaving together the latest knowledge and best practices for teaching children to read this indispensable text and professional resource provides a complete guide to differentiated instruction for diverse learners Uniquely integrative the book places the needs of English language learners and students with disabilities front and center instead of treating them as special topics Accessible chapters on each of the core components of literacy clearly demonstrate how to link formal and informal assessment to evidence based instruction Special features include Research Briefs Tech Tips Internet Resources Reflection and Action Questions and dozens of reproducible student activities and assessment tools Referential and Relational Discourse Coherence in Adults and Children Natalia Gagarina,Renate Musan,2020-06-08 This book combines studies on referential as well as relational coherence and includes approaches to written and to spoken language to production and to comprehension to language specific and to cross linguistic issues to monolingual bilingual and L2 acquisition The theoretical issues and empirical findings discussed are of importance not only for theoretical linguistics but also have a broad potential of practical implication Talking Texts Rosalind Horowitz, 2017-09-25 This volume examines how oral and written language function in school learning and how oral texts can be successfully inter connected to the written texts that are used on a daily basis in schools Rather than argue for the prominence of one over the other the goal is to help the reader gain a rich understanding of how both might work together to create a new discourse that ultimately creates new knowledge Talking Texts Provides historical background for the study of talk and text Presents examples of children s and adolescents natural conversations as analyzed by linguists Addresses talk as it interfaces with domains of knowledge taught in schools to show how talk is related to and may be influenced by the structure language and activities of a specific discipline Bringing together seminal lines of research to create a cohesive picture of discourse issues germane to classrooms and other learning settings this volume is an essential resource for researchers graduate students classroom teachers and curriculum specialists across the fields of discourse studies literacy and English education composition studies language development sociolinguistics and applied linguistics The Texts in Elementary Classrooms James V. Hoffman, Diane Lemonnier Schallert, 2004-09-22 This volume explores a variety of topics including texts in the teaching and learning of reading word identification and text characteristics choosing fiction to support young children s literacy development electronic text in the classroom and issues surrounding text selection Teaching Reading Comprehension to Students with Learning Difficulties Sharon Vaughn, Alison Boardman, Janette K. Klingner, 2024-06-25 Now in a revised and expanded third edition this important resource helps teachers understand how good readers comprehend text and how best to support students who are struggling It presents effective instructional methods for learners at all grade levels including those with reading disabilities Every chapter translates state of the art research into practical classroom applications All facets of comprehension are addressed including assessment vocabulary background knowledge and text structure Chapters also cover English learners intensive intervention and content literacy Utility as a teacher guide and course text is enhanced by sample lesson plans graphic organizers and chapter opening study questions New to This Edition Chapter on text selection and text structure Chapter on teachers frequently asked questions providing specific actionable advice More than twice as many sample lesson plans Revised throughout with the latest research and teaching techniques Report of the National Reading Panel : Teaching Children to Read : an Evidence-based Assessment of the Scientific Research Literature on Reading and Its Implications for Reading Instruction National Reading Panel (U.S.), 2000
