Justified Lives Michael Bliss,1993 In the first book to critically examine each of the fourteen feature films Sam Peckinpah directed during his career Michael Bliss stresses the persistent moral and structural elements that permeate Peckinpah s work By examining the films in great detail Bliss makes clear the moral framework of temptation and redemption with which Peckinpah was concerned while revealing the director s attention to narrative Bliss shows that each of Peckinpah s protagonists is involved with attempting in the words of Ride the High Country s Steve Judd to enter my house justified The validity of this systematic method is clearly demonstrated in the chapter devoted to The Wild Bunch By enumerating the doublings and triplings of action and dialogue found in the film Bliss underscores its symbolic and structural complexity Beginning the chapters treating Junior Bonner and The Getaway with analyses of their important title sequences Bliss shows how these frequently disregarded pieces present in miniature the major moral and narrative concerns of the films In his chapter on The Osterman Weekend Bliss makes apparent Peckinpah s awareness of and concern with the self reflexive nature of filmmaking itself Bliss shows that like John Ford Peckinpah moved from optimism to pessimism The films of the director s early period from The Deadly Companions to Cable Hogue support the romantic ideals of adventure and camaraderie and affirm a potential for goodness in America In his second group of films which begins with Straw Dogs and ends with Bring Me the Head of Alfredo Garcia both heroes and hope have vanished It is only in The Osterman Weekend that Peckinpah appears finally to have renewed his capacity for hope allowing his career to close in a positive way

More For Me Rachel Schurig,2022-01-09 The Ransomes are playing matchmaker That s not a good thing At least it s not if you re Bodhi Lakra The last thing in the world he needs is for his best friend s family to start interfering in his love life Has he been completely head over heels in love with Everly Ransome for years Yes But Bodhi doubts Ransome meddling is going to change anything Everly sees Bodhi as her friend Nothing more

Friends aren't easy to come by for Everly Ransome. It's hard to open up to people when she can't ever be sure that they're interested in her and not in getting close to her very famous family. That's why her relationship with Bodhi means so much to her. He's never once given her any reason to doubt his intentions. She's always been able to count on Bodhi and she can't imagine that ever changing. What Everly doesn't know is that sometimes change between friends is good. Sometimes the best friendships can lead to so much more. She just has to be brave enough to want it. In This House of Images Jon

Remmerde, 2000-12-20 A novel about cannibalism, art, business, love, and morality in the contemporary consumer culture.

Photo-era, 1914     Better Photos, 1913     The British Journal of Psychology, 1928 Issues for 1920-1947 include the proceedings of the society     Border images, border narratives Johan Schimanski, Jopi Nyman, 2021-02-02 This interdisciplinary volume explores the role of images and narratives in different borderscapes. Written by experienced scholars in the field, Border images, border narratives provides fresh insight into how borders, borderscapes, and migration are imagined and narrated in public and private spheres. Offering new ways to approach the political aesthetics of the border and its ambiguities, this volume makes a valuable contribution to the methodological renewal of border studies and presents ways of discussing cultural representations of borders and related processes. Influenced by the thinking of philosopher Jacques Rancière, this timely volume argues that narrated and mediated images of borders and borderscapes are central to the political process as they contribute to the public negotiation of borders and address issues such as the invisibility of migrants and the formation of alternative borderscapes. The contributions analyse narratives and images in literary texts, political and popular imagery, surveillance data, border art, and documentaries, as well as problems related to borderland identities, migration, and trauma. The case studies provide a highly comparative range of geographical contexts, ranging from Northern Europe and Britain via Mediterranean and Mexican USA borderlands to Chinese borderlands, from the perspectives of critical theory, literary studies, social anthropology, media studies, and political geography. The Magenta Door Raymond C. Wood, 2017-11-03 Raymond C. Wood resides in Lakeville, MA, with his wife Kathleen of 51 years. He always had a passion for reading and writing. He has also written a science fiction satire novel called A Cops Outer Space Odyssey as well as a children's fable titled Peppermint Valley.
