Sundin is a must buy and her latest World War II tale positively crackles with tension. Library Journal starred review. Munich 1938 Evelyn Brand is an American foreign correspondent as determined to prove her worth in a male dominated profession as she is to expose the growing tyranny in Nazi Germany. To do so she must walk a thin line. If she offends the government she could be expelled from the country or worse. If she fails to truthfully report on major stories she'll never be able to give a voice to the oppressed and wake up the folks back home. In another part of the city American graduate student Peter Lang is working on his PhD in German. Disillusioned with the chaos in the world due to the Great Depression he is impressed with the prosperity and order of German society. But when the brutality of the regime hits close he discovers a far better way to use his contacts within the Nazi party to feed information to the shrewd reporter he can't get off his mind. This electric standalone novel from fan favorite Sarah Sundin puts you right at the intersection of pulse pounding suspense and heart stopping romance. Sundin combines suspense and romance to great effect. Inspirational fans who like high octane action will enjoy this thrilling story. Publishers Weekly. Sundin masterfully combines action and attraction to generate multilayered thrills while exploring such themes as individual freedom versus the common good, gender and racial discrimination and the polarization of viewpoints which all have deep relevance today. Where Treetops Glisten Tricia Goyer, Cara Putman, Sarah Sundin, 2014-09-16. Siblings forge new paths and find love in three stories filled with the wonder of Christmas. Turn back the clock to a different time, listen to Bing Crosby sing of sleigh bells in the snow as the realities of America's involvement in the Second World War change the lives of the Turner family in Lafayette, Indiana. In Cara Putman's White Christmas, Abigail Turner is holding down the Home Front as a college student and a part time employee at a one of a kind candy shop. Loss of a beau to the war has Abigail skittish about romantic entanglements until a hard working young man with a serious problem needs her help. Abigail's brother Pete is a fighter pilot hero returned from the European Theater in Sarah Sundin's I'll Be Home for Christmas, trying to recapture the hope and peace his time at war has eroded. But when he encounters a precocious little girl in need of Pete's friendship, can he convince her widowed mother that he's no longer the bully she once knew. In Tricia Goyer's Have Yourself a Merry Little Christmas, Meredith Turner Merry to those who know her best is using her skills as a combat nurse on the frontline in the Netherlands. Halfway around the world from home, Merry never expects to face her deepest betrayal head on, but that's precisely what God has in mind to redeem her broken heart. The Turner family believes in God's providence during such a tumultuous time. Can they absorb the miracle of Christ's birth and His plan for a future?
