Blood Runs Cold on the Black Side of the Mountain Corinne F. Gerwe, 2013 Professional bear hunter and woodsman Bobby Burris was raised to hunt and poach on the famous Biltmore Estate lands and forest located adjacent to his family s homestead near Asheville North Carolina He was ruled by a tyrannical father who taught him to ignore the law and engaged him in an array of illegal activities from an early age at which time he witnessed a notorious still unsolved crime and murder He was forced to participate in other crimes and retaliations during his adolescence under his father s direction Rebellious against him Bobby became a young renegade and formed his own small criminal organization in Asheville that extended beyond the region with links to the Italian and Mexican mafias and drug trafficking routes from Los Angeles to Philadelphia His life from childhood into adulthood under a Machiavellian authority eventually led to his arrest and incarceration in a Federal prison where he by mere chance became a bodyguard for a mob boss of a major New York crime family His road to perdition was interrupted by a vision that transformed him in the midst of this setting and began within him a process of rebelling once more against a life of crime that he d been forced into since childhood The story takes place against a backdrop of mountain wilderness and people with a long history of isolation independence and rebellion against authority From a family of moonshine bootleggers a legacy of crime developed from father to son that began with illegal poaching on the vast acreage of the magnificent Biltmore Estate and its forestlands hunting parties with politically connected cronies from Asheville s old boynetwork a series of hidden crimes cruelties and cover ups that led to the monstrous formation of a young man with the brutalized heart of a stone cold killer This story inflects the true crime genre with a psychological perspective revealing unsolved mysteries secret societies bold adventure set within regional history and family drama with a focus on the father son relationship involving murder sin and redemption Bobby s journey from the black side of the mountain through a wilderness of transforming enlightenment is an exciting intriguing and inspiring story of physical and psychological survival The book glows with a loving appreciation for the good that lies deep within some of the most hardened hearts just as the setting deep in the Appalachian Mountains is shown bursting with images of spectacular beauty and the rich bounty of nature even while danger may lurk at every turn

Platte River Rick Bass, 2019-04-16. Available again, an acclaimed collection from an American master that USA Today called "Powerful, lyrical, vivid, engaging." Originally published twenty-five years ago, Platte River is one of the early collections that established Rick Bass's reputation as a master of the short form and one of the best writers of his generation. It contains three novellas of contemporary America, each informed by the mysteries of nature and the heart. Set along borders, both physical and immaterial, all of the novellas combine a spare but radiant naturalism with an outsize aspiration to folklore or myth. In the title story, a former pro linebacker living a simple, isolated life in the Canadian woods just across the border from Montana struggles with his artist girlfriend's desire to escape. Invited by his best friend from their college football days to give a talk at the school where the friend now teaches, he flies to northern Michigan. In the class the next morning, after a night fishing party on the Platte River, what he learns brings acceptance and a kind of salvation. In Mahatma Joe, a despairing evangelist living in a valley that was once so wild the people would go naked when the Chinook winds blew announcing winter's end, throws his fervor into planting a garden along the river, bringing purpose to the young woman who had camped there. In Field Events, the most comic of the stories, begins when two athlete brothers spy an enormous muscled man swimming in the river, hauling a canoe loaded with cast iron. Their plan to train him in the discus meets with complications when the giant and their older sister find in each other the missing part that neither could articulate.
