Women in the Shadows Jennifer Goodlander, 2016-10-31 Wayang kulit or shadow puppetry connects a mythic past to the present through public ritual performance and is one of most important performance traditions in Bali The dalang or puppeteer is revered in Balinese society as a teacher and spiritual leader Recently women have begun to study and perform in this traditionally male role an innovation that has triggered resistance and controversy In Women in the Shadows Jennifer Goodlander draws on her own experience training as a dalang as well as interviews with early women dalang and leading artists to upend the usual assessments of such gender role shifts She argues that rather than assuming that women performers are necessarily mounting a challenge to tradition tradition in Bali must be understood as a system of power that is inextricably linked to gender hierarchy She examines the very idea of tradition and how it forms both an ideological and social foundation in Balinese culture Ultimately Goodlander offers a richer more complicated understanding of both tradition and gender in Balinese society Following in the footsteps of other eminent reflexive ethnographies Women in the Shadows will be of value to anyone interested in performance studies Southeast Asian culture or ethnographic methods

Living in the shadows of a rich and sick society Dr. Lloyd G Fennell,2010-10-19 Living in the Shadows of a Rich and Sick Society is a chilling reality depicting the rising level of violence among teens increased alcohol and drug abuse and the continuous exploitation of children which has become a widespread phenomena that has developed into a scandalous situation in our homes schools communities and that all too often ends up in many grave yards The spiral of youth problems and issues has created challenges for our schools the police the courts and our neighborhoods It is my belief that solutions to most of these problems are no longer a local matter Our government must establish a national new team philosophy and commitment to address the physical social economical psychological and technological problems of our youth in our changing world It is my belief that the social problems of teens youth violence and miss education will continue to become major issues for a very long time unless some immediate and drastic actions are implemented In spite of the advancement of technology and the achievements in education businesses government and faith institution there is no single source within our societies that is more important that is in danger than the foundation of family The day break of a new culture is at hand in which the youth culture must be taken very seriously It is time for a cultural make over Our civilize society can no longer wait for an early afternoon break In a rich republic like ours we can no longer side step our civic responsibilities of knowing that the foundation of the family is in danger The new day is now Tomorrow is not promised Our civilized society can no longer wait for an early afternoon Immediate action is need to address the black sheep attitude of this nation Our young people are restless They have been awakened to the misgivings of their adult counterparts Do as I say but not as I do There is a silent revolution taking place in our youth culture of internet forums to challenge our institutions may be for good or for evil actions However soon they will be no more silent in the outcome The youth population must be taken very serious concerning their aggressive disobedience to parents their uncaring attitudes towards their peers and civic disorder to institutions Government both state and local jurisdictions will need to reassert their methods in developing regional strategies and collective programs that at times will call for a national approach for an effective comprehensive solution to counteract the silent psychopathic nature that are taking hold of our society It is quite evident from my experience of working in schools the community and the correctional institutions that violent behavior by youth is very serious and extreme and must be corrected immediately In times like these someone must be able to speak about the wrongs of government without fear and limitations The voice of the sick lame and the poor must be represented in all chambers of society As we look around to the greed and corruptions the crimes the abuse and violence we can see a decaying state of affairs crashing down with shattering forces ready to destroy the family and our learning institutions Needless to say most families are not equipped to keep pace with increasing technological changes that are taking place The level of advertisement and marketing techniques have cast a double shadow in which the haves are joining the haves and the have nots Living in the shadows of a rich and sick society is an attempt to look at the five major institutions of civilization with a spiritual vision of hope and institutional reconciliation A vision where the institutions of the family home schools places of worship commerce and government win dream new dreams for equitable action and just resources and services to reverse then ever ending spiral of unrest if we fail to addressing the needs of our future generation Today God is can

Deprivation of Liberty in the Shadows of the Institution Lucy Series, 2022-03-29 ePDF and ePUB available Open Access under CC BY NC licence During the 20th century the locus of care shifted from large institutions into the community However this shift was not always accompanied by liberation from restrictive practices In 2014 a UK Supreme Court ruling on the meaning of deprivation of liberty resulted in large numbers of older and disabled people in care homes supported living and family homes being re-categorized as detained Placing this ruling in its social historical and global context this book presents a socio-legal analysis of social care detention in the post-carceral era Drawing from disability rights law and the meanings of home and institution it proposes solutions to the Cheshire West ruling's paradoxical implications

Short History of the Shadow Victor I. Stoichita, 1997-08 Looks at the depiction and meaning of shadows in the history of Western art In the Shadows of the Cross Donald Nassr, 1993 Erupting from an explosion in Detroit that kills eight including the innocent family of Dr Michael George this page-turning psychological action thriller spreads like an epidemic from Los Angeles to Damascus leaving death in its wake Michael a neurosurgeon becomes obsessed with vengeance He is joined by his brother David his friend Susan a beautiful Parisian Juda as they uncover track relentlessly a secret society within the Vatican that has orchestrated the killings Their search takes them into the National Institute of Health the Pasteur Institute a giant French pharmaceutical firm the jungles of Zaire as they are pursued by an Arab contract killer Raoul Shamir in a trail of murder religious intrigue from Paris to Rome the dark streets of Venice the deserts of Syria In the shadows of the Vatican Michael must confront a power-crazed Cardinal a Masonic society of criminals as Juda grapples with assassins who would kill the Pope as a part of their plan to restore the Church's absolute power in the world place their leader into the Papacy A blending of historical fact-fiction it has unforgettable characters compelling action that will carry the reader late into the night to its shuddering climax TO ORDER CALL 1 800 827 ICAM 1 800 827 4226 ICAM PUBLISHING COMPANY 888 WEST BIG BEAVER TROY MI 48084 Laboring in the Shadow of Empire Celeste Vaughan Curington, 2024-09-13 Laboring in the Shadow of Empire Race Gender and Care Work in Portugal examines the everyday lives of an African descendant care service workforce that labors in an ostensibly anti-racial Europe and against the backdrop of the Portuguese colonial empire While much of the literature on global care work has focused on Asian and Latine migrant care workers there is comparatively less research that explicitly examines

African care workers and their migration histories to Europe Sociologist Celeste Vaughan Curington focuses on Portugal a European setting with comparatively liberal policies around family settlement and naturalization for migrants In this setting rapid urbanization in the late twentieth century along with a national push to reconcile work and family has shaped the growth of paid home care and cleaning service industries Many researchers focus on informal work settings where immigrant rights are restricted and many workers are undocumented or without permanent residence status Curington instead examines workers who have accessed citizenship or permanent residence status and also explores African women s experiences laboring in care and service industries in the formal market revealing how deeply colonial and intersectional logics of a racialized and international division of reproductive labor in Portugal render these women hyper invisible and hyper visible as appropriate workers in Lisbon
