Constitutional Law: Rights, Liberties and Justice 8th Edition Lee Epstein, Thomas G. Walker, 2013 Judicial decisions never occur in a vacuum they are influenced by a myriad of political factors From lawyers and interest groups to the shifting sentiments of public opinion to the ideological and behavioral inclinations of the justices Epstein and Walker show how all these dynamics play an integral part in the overall development of constitutional doctrine Drawing deeply from the spheres of political science and legal studies the excerpted case material is skillfully analyzed and presented for today's students Known for fastidious revising and streamlining the authors account for the latest scholarship in the field and offer rock solid analysis of recent landmark cases including as all the important opinions handed down through 2011 Building on the successes of the 7th edition the book's clean layout and design clearly distinguishes between commentary and opinion excerpts Not only does the design make the book an easier read for students it effectively showcases photos justice biographies and the Aftermath and Global Perspective sidebars And based on positive user feedback the authors have added even more Aftermath boxes in this new edition New cases in the 8th edition Hosanna Tabor Evangelical Lutheran Church and School v Equal Employment Opportunity Commission 2012 Snyder v Phelps 2011 Brown v Entertainment Merchants Association 2011 United States v Jones 2012 Citizens United v Federal Election Commission The Accounting Educators' Journal, 1998 Teaching the World Merrill Distad, University of Alberta. Office of the Vice-President (Research and External Affairs), 1996-04 This book catalogues an exhibition of textbooks by authors from the University of Alberta Each finished textbook contains its own story of challenges and victories And each has its own power as a record of knowledge a teaching tool and an object of permanence and beauty Bowker's Law Books and Serials in Print, 1995 El-Hi Textbooks & Serials in Print, 2000, 2000 Atlantic Reporter, 1912 Managing Financial Institutions Elizabeth Cooperman, 2016-12-08 This book goes beyond traditional financial institutions textbooks which tend to focus on mathematical models for risk management and the technical aspects of measuring and managing risk It focuses on the role of financial institutions in promoting social and economic goals for the communities in which they operate for the greater good while also meeting financial and competitive challenges and managing risks Cooperman divides the text into seven easily teachable modules that examine the real issues and challenges that managers of financial institutions face These include the transformative changes presented by social unrest climate change and resource challenges as well as the changes in how financial institutions operate in light of the opportunities that rapid innovations and disruptive technologies offer The book features Up to date coverage of new regulations affecting financial institutions such as Dodd Frank and new SEC regulations Material on project financing and new forms of financing including crowd funding and new methods of payment for financial institutions New sustainable finance models and strategies that incorporate environmental social and corporate governance considerations A new chapter on sustainable financial institutions social activism the greening of finance and socially responsible investing Practical cases focusing on sustainability give readers insight into the socioeconomic risks associated with climate change Streamlined and accessible Managing Financial Institutions will appeal to students of financial institutions and markets risk management and banking A companion website featuring PowerPoint slides an Instructor s Manual and additional cases is also available
