Lexicon of Garden and Landscape Architecture M. J. Vroom, 2006-03-17 In the lexicon of garden and landscape architecture Professor Meto J Vroom gets to the heart of over 250 key landscape concepts Through definition illustration and reference to the essential literature he delineates and expands the theoretical framework of his discipline thereby opening a fascinating gateway towards understanding change in our urban and rural landscapes This work will prove an indispensable point of reference for all those involved in landscape architecture practitioners and amateurs alike Jacket

Garden Plots Shelley Boyd, 2013-05-01 Canadian literature has long been preoccupied with the wilderness and the landscape but the garden has remained neglected terrain In Garden Plots Shelley Boyd focuses on private domestic gardens tended by individual gardeners to show how modest everyday spaces provide fertile grounds for the imagination Combining the history of gardening with literary analysis Garden Plots explores the use of the garden motif in the works of five authors Susanna Moodie Catharine Parr Traill Gabrielle Roy Carol Shields and Lorna Crozier With works spanning the nineteenth to twenty first centuries these writers reveal the associations between the arts of writing and gardening the evolving role of the female gardener and the changes that take place in Canada s literary gardens over time With the task of understanding our connection to the physical environment becoming increasingly important Garden Plots explores the subtle relations between place and narrative This fresh literary approach to Canada s gardening culture reveals that gardens grow and change not simply in the earth but also in the pages of our texts

Landscape Ecology in the Dutch Context T.M. de Jong, J.N.M. Dekker, R. Posthoorn, 2017-04-03 This book is the result of three symposia of the Dutch Society for Landscape Ecology Werkgemeenschap voor Landschapsecologisch Onderzoek about the Dutch National Ecological Network urban ecology and civil infrastructure The three topics among others show important contexts in which landscape ecologists do their research and apply their knowledge and skills The book focuses on urbanisation intensive land use and water management as characteristic features of the Netherlands and therefore presents an important view on landscape ecology in the Dutch context

Healing Spaces, Modern Architecture, and the Body Sarah Schrank, Didem Ekici, 2016-07-15 Healing Spaces Modern Architecture and the Body brings together cutting edge scholarship examining the myriad ways that architects urban planners medical practitioners and everyday people have applied modern ideas about health and the body to the spaces in which they live work and heal The book s contributors explore North American and European understandings of the relationship between physical movement bodily health technological innovation medical concepts natural environments and architectural settings from the nineteenth century through the heyday of modernist architectural experimentation in the 1920s and 1930s and onward into the 1970s Not only does the book focus on how professionals have engaged with the architecture of healing and the body it also explores how urban dwellers have strategized and modified their living environments themselves to create a kind of vernacular modernist architecture of health in their homes gardens and backyards This new work builds upon a growing interdisciplinary field incorporating the urban humanities geography architectural history the history of medicine and critical visual studies that reflects our current preoccupation with the body and its corresponding therapeutic culture

The Cultural Landscape & Heritage Paradox Tom Bloemers, Henk Kars, Arnold Van der Valk, 2010 The basic problem is to what extent we can know past and mainly invisible landscapes and how we can use this still hidden knowledge for actual sustainable management of landscape s cultural and historical values It has also been acknowledged that heritage management is increasingly about the management of future change rather than simply protection This presents us with a paradox to preserve our historic environment we have to collaborate with those who wish to transform it and in order to apply our expert knowledge we have to make it suitable for policy and society The answer presented by the Protection and Development of the Dutch Archaeological Historical Landscape programme pdl bbo is an integrative landscape approach which applies inter and transdisciplinarity establishing links between archaeological historical heritage and planning and between research and policy
