Madam Belle Maryjean Wall,2014-10-14 The captivating true story of the notorious Gilded Age madam who inspired the Belle Watling character in Gone with the Wind The Wall Street Journal Belle Brezing made a major career move when she stepped off the streets of Lexington Kentucky and into Jennie Hill's bawdy house an upscale brothel run out of a former residence of Mary Todd Lincoln At nineteen Brezing was already infamous as a youth steeped in death sex drugs and scandal But it was in Miss Hill's respectable establishment that she began to acquire the skills manners and business contacts that allowed her to ascend to power and influence as an internationally known madam In this revealing book Maryjean Wall offers a tantalizing true story of vice and power in the Gilded Age South as told through the life and times of the notorious Miss Belle After years on the streets and working for Hill Belle Brezing borrowed enough money to set up her own establishment her wealth and fame growing alongside the booming popularity of horse racing Soon her houses were known internationally and powerful patrons from the industrial cities of the Northeast courted her in the lavish parlors of her gilt and mirror mansion Secrecy was a moral code in the sequestered demimonde of prostitution in Victorian America so little has been written about the Southern madam credited with inspiring the character Belle Watling in Margaret Mitchell's Gone with the Wind Following Brezing from her birth amid the ruins of the Civil War to the height of her scarlet fame and beyond Wall uses her story to explore a wider world of sex business politics and power The result is a scintillating tale as enthralling as any fiction
