

Gmail: Sending, replying, attachments, and printing

Welcome to Gmail. This document will give you a quick overview of how Gmail works with you to make your life easier. Let's get started!

Your Inbox

When you sign in to Gmail, you'll see a list of any messages you've received in your Inbox. Here's an example:

The screenshot shows the Gmail inbox interface. On the left, there's a sidebar with 'Mail' and a 'Compose' button. Below that are folders: 'Inbox (4)', 'Starred', 'Important', 'Sent Mail', 'Drafts (7)', 'Development', 'Financial', and 'Junk E-mail'. There's also a 'Chat' section with a search bar and a contact 'Cassy Smith'. The main area shows a list of emails. The first email is from 'Google+ team' with the subject 'Getting started on Google+'. The second email is from 'Sondra, me, Murthy (3)' with the subject 'Support Widget - next steps'. The third email is from 'Alice, me (2)' with the subject 'New website design - Thanks Alice. It looks g'. The bottom status bar shows '8% full (Using 0.8GB of your 25GB free)', '©2011 Google - Terms of Service - Privacy Policy - Program Policies', and 'Powered by Google'.

Unread messages are in bold. To open a message, simply click it in your message list.

About conversations

By default, replies to messages are grouped into conversations. A conversation keeps all messages in a thread together, which makes it easier to keep track of them and reduces inbox clutter. Here's how a conversation appears in your inbox:

The screenshot shows a conversation thread in the Gmail inbox. It consists of two emails. The first email is from 'Sondra, me, Murthy (3)' with the subject 'Support Widget - next steps - Hi everyone,' and the date 'Nov 29'. The second email is from 'Alice, me (2)' with the subject 'New website design - Thanks Alice. It looks g' and the date 'Nov 29'.

Note: The number of messages in a conversation appears to the right of senders' names.
