Race Talk in the South African Media Gawie Botma, 2020-01-06 This book makes a very significant timely and relevant contribution to a very topical subject of immense local as well as global interest Through tracing the evolution of media discourse about race and racism which the author prefers to call race talk the writer prised open a window to a panoramic variegated and yet nuanced perspective of the perennial South African race question etched across the vistas of time and memory since Jan Van Riebeeck set up the first European settlement as a refreshment station for the Dutch East India Company at the Cape of Good Hope in 1652 up to the time of writing this book It lends a fresh lens through which to re read South African society not only to a studious scholar of media history but also to anybody interested in the general history of South Africa Dr Zvenyika Mugari WITS This book is based on meticulous archival searching presented in a new fresh and highly engaging way This is a book based on evidentiary led scholarly principles that has lucidity as a goal Unlike so many scholarly works which are turgid and very difficult to read because they are written in restricted codes meant only for other academics this manuscript is wonderfully lucid accessible and a pleasure to read The prime readership will be academics but its lucidity makes it appealing beyond a purely academic readership hopefully reaching media professionals and students also and influencing debates on race policy This is how academic books in fact should be written Prof Keyan Tomaselli University of Johannesburg The author has embarked on a very difficult and complex task of understanding the race construct in the South African media context This is a highly contested and contentious space in South Africa and it is particularly arduous for a white middle class middle aged Afrikaans male to navigate this space The author has however eloquently managed to pilot this fine line of controversy He offers a balanced view of the belligerent debate without treading insensitively on the toes of protagonists and at the same time challenges prevailing views Andr Rose National Cancer Institute      Multilingual Higher Education Christa van der Walt,2013-04-12 The general perception that a good command of English is enough to gain access and to be successful in higher education hides the complexity of learning and teaching in multilingual environments and this book shows that all higher education environments are multilingual to some extent Strategies like translation interpreting and switching from one language to another not only support learning but also build competence for multilingual professional environments Whether institutions focus on widening access to minoritised communities or whether they want to attract more international students the book argues that a multilingual pedagogy is needed to improve student access and success Building on work by Nancy Hornberger Colin Baker and Ofelia Garc a the book extends strategies and techniques from bilingual education at school level to multilingual higher education      Congressional Record United States. Congress,1978 The Congressional Record is the official record of the proceedings and debates of the United States Congress It is published daily when Congress is in session The Congressional Record began publication in 1873 Debates for sessions prior to 1873 are recorded in The Debates and Proceedings in the Congress of the United States 1789 1824 the Register of Debates in Congress 1824 1837 and the Congressional Globe 1833 1873      Resources in Education ,1984      Improving Global Worker Health and Safety Through Collaborative Capacity Building Initiatives Thomas P. Fuller,2021-07-13 Many economically developing countries and nations without robust occupational hygiene OH educational programs endure a shortage of qualified occupational hygienists resulting in higher rates of workplace injury illness and fatality Damage to valuable infrastructure environment and public health also occurs without adequate support Improving Global Worker Health and Safety Through Collaborative Capacity Building Initiatives outlines a broad variety of capacity building projects in OH It also introduces detailed experiences of occupational hygienists working abroad and working on special global topics including a discussion of how global trade agreements influence the practice and policy within OH It describes the special needs of informal workers who do not have a typical employer and special challenges of creating university curricular guidelines for OH building competency and increasing capacity This book also informs experienced professionals in international OH capacity building initiatives and directions Features Presents the global impact and importance of occupational hygienists Outlines knowledge and collaboration through networking Provides case studies on real world situations and problems This text will be useful for professionals and graduate students in the fields of occupational health and safety and public health

Congressional Record Index, 1978 Includes history of bills and resolutions The Bantu Bibliography Jouni Maho, 2008 Language and Institutional Identity in the Post-Apartheid South African Higher Education Leketi Makalela, 2022-03-21 This book examines the intersections between education identity formation and language in post apartheid South Africa with specific attention to higher education It does so against the backdrop of the core argument that the sector plays a critical role in shaping re producing and perpetuating sectoral class sub national and national identities which in turn in the peculiar South African setting are almost invariably analogous with the historical fault lines determined and dictated by language as a marker of ethnic and racial identity The chapters in the book grapple with the nuances related to these intersections in the understanding that higher education language policies overt and or covert largely structure institutional cultures or what has been described as curriculum in higher education institutions Together the chapters examine the roles played by higher education by language policies and by the intersections of these policies and ethnolinguistic identities in either constructing and perpetuating or deconstructing ethnolinguistic identities upon which the sector was founded The introductory chapter lays out the background to the entire book with an emphasis on the policy and practice perspectives on the intersections The middle chapters describe the so called White Universities Black Universities and Middle Man Minorities Universities The final chapter maps out future directions of the discourses on language and identity formation in South Africa's higher education

Investigating Corruption and White-collar Crime in South African Higher Education Bethuel Sibongiseni Ngcamu, 2025-10-16 Using an interpretivist approach this qualitative volume interrogates instances of corruption and white collar crime prevalent in South African higher education institutions and suggests pathways for the proactive detection and prevention of corrupt practices Contextualizing the author's practical experiences gained in the higher education sector over the past two decades this book employs an ethnographical method to explore the complexity of university systems structures and functions that make South Africa's formerly disadvantaged universities more susceptible to corruption In the midst of highly contested divisive and highly politicized ways of reporting corruption in the media chapters provide critical analyses guided by scientific approaches robust data sets and qualitative face to face interviews to underpin the reliability of proposed policy amendments intended to detect and prevent corruption and white collar crime as well as the suggested closure of loop holes that make the sector vulnerable to and known for a high level of criminality Making a substantial contribution to broader academic debate around corruption and university management internationally this book will be of interest to researchers and postgraduate students in the field of higher education higher education management and administration and education policy and politics Policy makers in both the Global South and North are also likely to benefit from this book

AIDS in the Shadow of Biomedicine Isak Niehaus, 2018-12-15 The Bushbuckridge region of South Africa has one of the highest rates of HIV infection in the world Having first arrived in the area in the early 1990s the disease spread rapidly and by 2008 life expectancies had fallen by 12 years for men and 14 years for women Since 2005 public health facilities have increasingly offered free HAART highly active antiretroviral therapy treatment offering a degree of hope but uptake and adherence to the therapy has been sporadic and uneven Drawing on his extensive ethnographic research carried out in Bushbuckridge over the course of 25 years Isak Niehaus reveals how the AIDS pandemic has been experienced at the village level Most significantly he shows how local cultural practices and values have shaped responses to the epidemic For example while local attitudes towards death and misfortune have contributed to the stigma around AIDS kinship structures have also facilitated the adoption and care of AIDS orphans Such practices challenge us to rethink the role played by culture in understanding and treating sickness with Niehaus showing how an appreciation of local beliefs and customs is essential to any effective strategy of AIDS treatment Overturning many of our assumptions on disease prevention the book is essential reading for practitioners as well as researchers in global health anthropology sociology epidemiology and scholars interested in public health and administration in sub Saharan Africa

Lifestyle and Epidemiology Kotsedi Daniel Monyeki, Han C.G. Kemper, 2021-10-06 Lifestyle and Epidemiology The Double Burden of Poverty and Cardiovascular Diseases in African Populations examines the profile of non communicable diseases NCDs in the rural South African population The burden of diseases in South Africa is characterized by a combination of poverty related diseases with emerging NCDs associated with urbanization industrialization and a

Westernised lifestyle Chapters in this book examine the effects of poverty COVID 19 and other social factors on the prevalence of cardiovascular disease reproductive health and diabetes in rural South Africa International Higher Education Volume 1 Philip Altbach,2014-06-23 This encyclopedia is the result of a highly selective enterprise that provides a careful selection of key topics in essays written by top scholars in their fields Comprehensive and in depth coverage of a limited number of countries regions and themes is provided The essays not only feature statistical and factual information but significant interpretation of those facts and figures The chapters on themes and topics are both analytic and interpretative and deal with the most important topics relevant to higher education everywhere More than a compendium of facts and figures the encyclopedia is a comprehensive overview of a growing field of research and analysis The Afrikaner's Emancipation Barry Botha,2008-11 President Mandela's stand in negotiations before during and after imprisonment was attainment of universal democratic rights for all citizens in South Africa His counterpart President F W de Klerk's condition was protection of minority rights a position he knew could not be sustained but he did persuade whites to support it until he in the end capitulated and they also The result was a peaceful transition to black majority rule but a great number of Afrikaners accepted the handing over of power without rejecting their apartheid ideology The Afrikaner's Apartheid Mindset was based on an attitude of superiority and a false belief that apartheid was scripturally justified Although most Christian churches rejected apartheid as sin the biggest Afrikaans Protestant Church the Dutch Reformed Church only did so in 1986 Many Afrikaner Christians still have not personally accepted this truth thus binding themselves to unfinished reconciliation Through reconciliation the Afrikaners need to make amends for a century of injustice against blacks whom they refused parliamentary representation On the other hand in the previous century of injustice before the Anglo Boer War 1899 British imperialism sought to end the Afrikaners independence Black economic empowerment a means of compensation or redress may eventually benefit all parties in the new era instead of being a cause of frustration and complaint
