Images Changeantes De Linde Et De L'Afrique:

Images changeantes de l'Inde et de l'Afrique Michel Olinga, Geetha Ganapathy-Dore, 2011-04-01 L'Inde et l'Afrique sont longtemps restées aux yeux de l'Occident deux contrées exotiques. Puis est apparue une kyrielle d'images de la misère de la surpopulation des maladies des guerres fratricides des catastrophes naturelles. Quelle image l'Inde et l'Afrique ont-elles d'elles-mêmes et l'une de l'autre ? Cet ouvrage essaie de soulever ces questions afin de saisir la dynamique de la représentation actuelle de l'Inde et de l'Afrique. Images Changeantes de L'Inde Et de L'Afrique, 2013 New Soundings in Postcolonial Writing Janet Wilson, Chris Ringrose, 2016-08-29 New Soundings in Postcolonial Writing is a collection of critical and creative writing in honour of the postcolonial critic, editor and anthologist Bruce King. There are essays on topics relating to Caribbean authors Derek Walcott, Simone and André Schwarz-Bart, diaspora writers in England Zadie Smith, Andrea Levy, Michael Ondaatje, South East Asian writing in English Arun Kolatkar, recent Pakistani fiction Anita Desai and New Zealand, Canadian and Pacific writers Albert Wendt, Patricia Grace, Bill Manhire, Joseph Boyden, Greg O'Brien. The creative writing section features new work by David Dabydeen, Fred D'Aguiar, Arvind Mehrotra, Jeet Thayil, Meena Alexander, Keki Daruwalla, Adil Jussawalla, Tabish Khair, Susan Visvanathan and others reflecting King's pioneering work on Indian poetry in English and his many friendships. The Postcolonial Indian Novel in English Geetha Ganapathy-Doré, 2011-01-18 Indian writers of English such as G.V. Desani, Salman Rushdie, Amit Chaudhuri, Amitav Ghosh, Vikram Seth, Allan Sealy, Shashi Tharoor, Arundhati Roy, Vikram Chandra and Jhumpa Lahiri have taken the potentialities of the novel form to new heights. Against the background of the genre's macro history, this study attempts to explain the stunning vitality, colourful diversity and the outstanding but sometimes controversial success of postcolonial Indian novels in the light of ongoing debates in postcolonial studies. It analyses the warp and woof of the novelistic text through a cross-sectional scrutiny of the issues of democracy, the poetics of space, the times of empire, nation and globalization, self-writing in the auto meta-documentary, fictional modes, the musical, pictorial, cinematic and culinary intertextualities that run through this hyperpalimpsestic practice and the politics of gender, caste and language that gives it an inimitable stamp. This concise and readable survey gives us intimations of a truly world literature as imagined by Francophone writers because the postcolonial Indian novel is a concrete illustration of how language, liberated from its exclusive pact with the nation, can enter into a dialogue with a vast polyphonic ensemble.

On the Move Geetha Ganapathy-Doré, Helga Ramsey-Kurz, 2012-12-18 In the postcommunist world of organized mobility, commodified hospitality and portable devices, the category of people labelled as migrants, the displaced and refugees symbolize a different kind of movement. Among them, the postnational figure of the refugee stands out. Fleeing their land alone or in a group, on foot or on buses and trains or via makeshift boats and commercial flights, dressed in unfamiliar clothes and borrowed identities, the refugees travel to dare a future from the taken roads. Their journey of escape is fraught with danger and despair, their survival complicated by the politics of suspicion and their right to return compromised by the power game between sovereign states Waiting for ever in transit zones or living underground like animals but exploited for their labour the refugees are the untouchables of the 21st century who put to test the universal and moral duty of hospitality When the international legal regime of human and humanitarian rights does not come to their rescue refugee women and children feel twice abandoned This volume of collected essays tries to explore the journey of refugees as represented in New Literatures in English Who are these refugees What circumstances triggered their movement At what point in history Where do they go How do they cope What are their dreams When does the refugees silence break into speech and story How does life assert itself in spite of impending death Could the death of a refugee be as insignificant as her bare life of exile Scholars from Europe Africa India and Sri Lanka give here a comprehensive picture of the refugee movement across the globe since the Second World War The refugee narratives highlight the need to extend the logic of protection from persecution to asylum from economic crisis and ecological imbalance in order to offset the after effects of imperial outreach and industrial expansion With a short story by Chika Unigwe by way of a foreword and contributions from Petra Tournay Theodotou Helga Ramsey Kurz Marta Cariello Stavros Karayanni Jean Marie Soungoua Federico Fabris Evelyne Hanquart Turner Annie Cottier Geetha Ganapathy Dor G Sujatha and V Vinod Kumar La voix anglophone du roman Indien Evelyne
