Epistolarity and World Literature, 1980-2010 Rachel Bower, 2017-09-29 This book examines the striking resurgence of the literary letter at the end of the long twentieth century It explores how authors returned to epistolary conventions to create dialogue across national linguistic and cultural borders and repositions a range of contemporary and postcolonial authors never considered together before including Monica Ali John Berger Amitav Ghosh Michael Ondaatje and Alice Walker Through a series of situated readings the book shows how the return to epistolarity is underpinned by ideals relating to dialogue and human connection Several of the works use letters to present non anglophone material to the anglophone reader Others use letters to challenge policed borders the prison occupied territory the nation state Elsewhere letters are used to connect correspondents in different cultural and linguistic contexts Common to all of the works considered in this book is the appeal that they make to us as readers and the responsibility they place on us to respond to this address By taking the epistle as its starting point and pursuing Auerbach's speculative ideal of weltliteratur this book turns away from the dominant trend of distant reading in world literature and shows that it is in the close situated analysis of form and composition that the concept of world literature emerges most clearly This study seeks to re think the ways in which we read world literature and shows how the literary letter in old and new forms speaks powerfully again in this period A Plain and Literal Translation of the Arabian Nights' Entertainments, Now Entitled the Book of the Thousand Nights and a Night with Introduction Explanatory Notes on the Manners and Customs of Moslem Men and a Terminal Essay Upon the History of The Nights, 1885 A Plain and Literal Translation of the Arabian Nights' Entertainments, 1900 Dubai Dreams

Raymond Barrett, 2010-12-15 This is Dubai a place where the confines of the imagination no longer apply Dubai has become the watchword for all things new glittering and very bling a billionaire's dream world and a haven for international expatriates promising a fantasy land of tax free fun sun and sin In less than a generation this small city state on the Arabian Gulf has been transformed from a sleepy smuggler's cove to a global financial and entertainment hub home to a number of world records including the world's tallest building the largest man made island and the biggest shopping mall But what is life really like for the people who live and work in the city of Dubai beyond the towering skyscrapers luxury resorts and opulent mansions Rather than just desert Sheikhs and designer clad Emiratis Raymond Barrett also encounters a dizzy melange of expatriates Iranians Ethiopians Indians Afghans British and Chinese all living their own version of The Dubai Dream Behind the hyperbole and marketing spin what are the real stories the city has to tell From seven star hotels to immigrant labour camps from Sunni mosques to Hindu temples and from the courthouse to a back alley speakeasy Barrett draws a fascinating picture of the brave new world emerging from these desert sands He reveals the hidden side of this playboy paradise and considers whether Dubai is a doomed Plastic Arabia or an authentic 21st century success story I'm Gonna Tell God Everything Happy Asati, 2025-04-25 Set against the backdrop of war torn Syria I m Gonna Tell God Everything is a heart wrenching story of innocence lost love tested and a child s unforgettable message to the world Five year old Ahmed finds joy in small moments despite the chaos around him His mother Fatima shields him from war s horrors while his Uncle Hassan teaches him courage But when an airstrike shatters their world Ahmed critically injured whispers his final words I m gonna tell God everything His story sparks global outrage exposing the cost of war A powerful tale of love loss and hope Ahmed s voice echoes beyond borders The Boy on the Beach Tima Kurdi, 2018-04-17 An intimate and poignant memoir about the family of Alan Kurdi the young Syrian boy who became the global emblem for the desperate plight of millions of Syrian refugees and of the many extraordinary journeys the Kurdis have taken spanning countries and continents Alan Kurdi s body washed up on the shore of the Mediterranean Sea on September 2 2015 and overnight the political became personal as the world awoke to the reality of the Syrian refugee crisis Tima Kurdi first saw the shocking photo of her nephew in her home in Vancouver Canada But Tima did not need a photo to understand the truth she and her family had already been living it In The Boy on the Beach Tima recounts her idyllic childhood in Syria where she grew up with her brother Abdullah and other siblings in a tight knit family A strong willed independent woman Tima studied to be a hairdresser and had dreams of seeing the world At twenty two she emigrated to Canada but much of her family remained in Damascus Life as a single mother and immigrant in a new country wasn t always easy and Tima recounts with heart wrenching honesty the anguish of being torn between a new home and the world she d left behind As Tima struggled to adapt to life in a new land war overtook her homeland Caught in the crosshairs of civil war her family risked everything and fled their homes Tima worked tirelessly to help them find safety but their journey was far from easy Although thwarted by politics hounded by violence and separated by vast distances the Kurdis encountered setbacks at every turn they never gave up hope And when tragedy struck Tima suddenly found herself thrust onto the world stage as an advocate for refugees everywhere a role for which she had never prepared but that allowed her to give voice to those who didn t have an opportunity to speak for themselves From the jasmine scented neighbourhoods of Damascus before the war to the streets of Aleppo during it to the refugee camps of Europe and the leafy suburbs of Vancouver The Boy on the Beach is one family s story of love loss and the persistent search for safe harbour in a devastating time of war The Bank of Fear: A Novel

Places and Names Elliot Ackerman, 2019 From a decorated Marine war veteran and National Book Award finalist an astonishing reckoning with the nature of combat and the human cost of the wars in Iraq Afghanistan and Syria War hath determined us John Milton Paradise Lost Toward the beginning of Places and Names Elliot Ackerman sits in a refugee camp in southern Turkey across the table from a man named Abu Hassar who fought for al Qaeda in Iraq and whose connections to the Islamic State are murky At first Ackerman pretends to have been a journalist during the Iraq War but after establishing a rapport with Abu Hassar he takes a risk by revealing to him that in fact he was a Marine special operation officer Ackerman then draws the shape of the Euphrates River on a large piece of paper and his one time adversary quickly joins him in the game of filling in the map with the names and dates of places where they saw fighting during the war They had shadowed each other for some time it turned out a realization that brought them to a strange kind of intimacy The rest of Elliot Ackerman's extraordinary memoir is in a way an answer to the question of why he came to that refugee camp and what he hoped to find there By moving back and forth between his recent experiences on the ground as a journalist in Syria and its environs and his deeper past in Iraq and Afghanistan he creates a work of remarkable atmospheric pressurization Ackerman shares vivid and powerful stories of his own experiences in combat culminating in the events of the Second Battle of Fallujah the most intense urban combat for the Marines since Hue in Vietnam where Ackerman's actions leading a rifle platoon saw him awarded the Silver Star He weaves these stories into the latticework of a masterful larger reckoning with contemporary geopolitics through his vantage as a journalist in Istanbul and with the human extremes of both bravery and horror At once an intensely personal story about the terrible lure of combat and a brilliant meditation on the larger meaning of the past two decades of strife for America the region and the world Places and Names bids fair to take its place among our greatest books about modern war

And Then God Created the Middle East and Said 'Let There Be Breaking News' Karl reMarks, 2018-07-09 You may wonder why the Middle East gets so much airtime Well regions of the world were competing to host the apocalypse and the Middle East won Online sensation Karl reMarks disagreed with the idea that reality had become too strange to satirise Then he read that bin Laden was radicalised by Shakespeare Since then Karl has been bringing the best of the Middle East news and views to his followers around the world Now Karl's wildly wry observations and sketches are available in one handy collection With sections on Geography for Dummies Democracy for Realists and Extremism A Study alongside the best of Karl reMarks's infamous Bar Jokes this hilarious book proudly presents views you're guaranteed not to hear on the news We're actually very proud of God in the Middle East He's the local guy who went on to acquire international fame Wahahahahabism A fundamentalist Middle Eastern comedy movement Twelve people just started to follow me Jesus

Osama's Jihad Hani Selim, 2019-04-22 It is an empowering novel it is a conversation starter It addresses both Homophobia and Islamophobia it sheds light on both matters through the eyes of the main character Osama living in two different worlds It is a story of unconditional love it is about the ties that bind a family together The story offers an insight into the lives of average Muslim families living in the West with strong ties to the Middle East It's not what you think It's not what you're expecting It's not a defense a diatribe or an endorsement Osama's Jihad instead is an extraordinary novel that takes you from New York City to Cairo to Makkah and back again as our protagonist Osama grows from childhood to manhood through a series of dizzying experiences After the death of his beloved father the adult Osama is adrift in guilt recriminations and self doubt Despite their strong and devoted relationship an incident in the family years before had uprooted the adolescent Osama his mother and sister from New York to Cairo Osama finds a passionate and all encompassing love in neighbor Nora but shocking revelations about her lead to anguish scarring and possibly permanent ruin It is clear that Osama needs to acknowledge his past and accept his own culpability as well as find a road to his future We identify with him as his vulnerability and self loathing threaten to overtake his desire to live and to see his son grow to manhood Indeed Osama is living his jihad the spiritual struggle within that every human must confront and triumph over Osama's Jihad is a story with universal relevance that is unique in its ability to cross between post terrorism irrationality and the unifying powers of love understanding and acceptance It bridges cultures nationalism and religions in a way unlike anything you ve read before It s not very often that I come across a story that touches my heart so deeply that it resonates with my every emotion To say that I fell in love with the story and its characters from the very beginning would not come close to accurately depicting the intensity of my admiration for it It is my strong belief that Hani Selim has impressively found a way to create a story encompassing so many important topics affecting the world today He has accomplished this in a selfless effort to magnify humanity I am not an Arab I am not a Muslim and I am not a Homosexual I am a mother As a mother it pains me to think of all the hatred that some children have to face because of such classifications To be a supporter of this book and its continued production would be a step in the right direction on the path to a better world I know that whoever reads this novel will walk away with an increased knowledge of what it feels like to be a person placed in such categories They will be exposed to the struggles one must face in an effort to secure basic freedoms deserved by all human beings This novel will pull at your heart strings and dig deep within your soul to distinguish a new sense of empathy It really is a story that has something for everyone but in the end it all comes down to love I predict a definite best seller

Allah's Spacious Earth is a stunningly fresh and timely political dystopia that depicts the tragic yet very real consequences of tensions between majority populations and Muslim minorities in the Western world. The novel is set in an imagined future where anti-Muslim sentiment and political pressure lead to a community being cut off from the rest of society. Told from the perspective of Nasim, a young Muslim living in the Zone, an urban area within one of the states forming the Pan-European Federation, the story follows his journey as he struggles with the restrictions imposed upon him along with the expectations of his community. In the tradition of Michel Houellebecq's Submission, Allah's Spacious Earth is a powerful novel of ideas that brilliantly captures a growing fear in Western societies and its devastating fallout.
