Vietnam's Year of the Rat Ronald Bruce Frankum, Jr., 2014-04-04 Vietnam's Year of the Rat explores the lunar New Year 1960 and the dynamic relationship between two competing groups vying for control in the Republic of Vietnam One group led by United States Ambassador Elbridge Durbrow worked toward directing Vietnam towards an American style democracy that focused on forcing reforms within the Saigon government The other group headed by Republic of Vietnam President Ngo Dinh Diem attempted to navigate the demands of Durbrow and the State Department and to confront internal opposition and an emerging external threat while trying to further the goals of the Republic The result was a series of failed opportunities by both sides to resolve the differences of the two complementary if conflicting strategies Vietnam's Year of the Rat offers an alternative to the now standard historiography for this period of the study in the Vietnam War by providing a Vietnamese viewpoint into the story of that long and tragic war

Ageism and Mistreatment of Older Workers Patricia Brownell, James J. Kelly, 2012-12-11 This book promotes an understanding of ageism discrimination and mistreatment of older adult workers incorporating an international human rights perspective The impact of ageism on the mistreatment of older adult workers has not to date been examined in depth through the lens of international human rights instruments nor has discrimination against older adults in the workplace been framed as a form of elder abuse for research and policy making purposes This book presents a multi disciplinary exploration of these themes as they affect work and retirement of older adults It reflects the view that older people who choose to work into old age should be able to do so in enabling work environments that promote dignity and are free of abuse The contributing authors come from many disciplines including law psychology social work business and international affairs Many are members of the International Network for the Prevention of Elder Abuse INPEA a non governmental organization with consultative status at the United Nations and have devoted their professional careers to increase awareness and understanding of elder abuse in order to prevent it The editors hope that broadening the framework within which elder abuse in the workplace is understood will stimulate further research policy and program development to address this troubling social problem Elbridge

Durbrow's War in Vietnam Ronald Bruce Frankum, Jr.,2019-08-23 Elbridge Durbrow served as the third United States ambassador to the Republic of Vietnam from 1957 to 1961 His relationships with Vietnamese president Ngo inh Di m and members of the Military Assistance Advisory Group in Saigon helped to shape his tenure in office which ultimately concluded with his decision to end his support for the Vietnamese leader as well as turn away from the American military representatives who had earned Ngo inh Di m s trust This triangular relationship was mired in clashes of ego and personality that often interfered with the American decision making process Durbrow and his embassy staff rather than work with the Vietnamese leadership chose to focus on the negative and reported to Washington only those items that reinforced this perspective They created an atmosphere of distrust and anxiety that neither the Americans nor Vietnamese could overcome in the 1960s and helped to create the conditions for greater United States involvement in Southeast Asia Small Arms
