Nature James Owen Thomas,2025-02-27 An exploration of colourful collages influenced by autism and the natural world by award winning environmental artist James Owen Thomas Foreword by Monty Don James creates bold engaging collages and montages from old lottery scratchcards and other used materials His autism has an influence throughout his creative process from gathering materials to sorting them by colour visual theme and texture before hole punching tearing or cutting them up for collaging it even affects the subjects he depicts These are primarily peaceful calming woodland settings and animals but also branch out into architecture portraiture and the surreal This beautifully illustrated examination of his work shows how his art and love for nature have helped him cope with autism from an early age going on to explain the inspiration behind many of his pieces and the various techniques he uses An emotive biographical section describes the many challenges of his autism and how he has worked through them and with them to become a successful artist and environmental campaigner
