

INFORMATIONAL TEXTS

DEFINITION

Informational texts are written works that provide facts, data, and knowledge about specific topics. They aim to educate and inform the reader without offering personal opinions or fictional narratives. These texts are commonly found in textbooks, manuals, news articles, and other non-fiction sources.

EXAMPLES

- Encyclopedia Entries:
Comprehensive summaries about a particular topic, providing detailed information and background.
- Scientific Journals:
Publications that present research findings and methodologies in various scientific fields.

Next Generation Information Technologies and Systems Alon Halevy, Avigdor Gal, 2003-08-02 NGITS2002 was the fifth workshop of its kind promoting papers that discuss new technologies in information systems. Following the success of the four previous workshops 1993 1995 1997 and 1999 the fifth NGITS Workshop took place on June 24-25 2002 in the ancient city of Caesarea. In response to the Call for Papers 22 papers were submitted. Each paper was evaluated by three Program Committee members. We accepted 11 papers from 3 continents and 5 countries: Israel 5 papers US 3 papers Germany Cyprus and The Netherlands 1 paper from each. The workshop program consisted of five paper sessions two keynote lectures and one panel discussion. The topics of the paper sessions are: Advanced Query Processing Web Applications Moving Objects Advanced Information Models and Advanced Software Engineering. We would like to thank all the authors who submitted papers the program committee members the presenters and everybody who assisted in making NGITS2002 a reality.

Register Variation Online Douglas Biber, Jesse Egbert, 2018-08-23 While other books focus on special internet registers like tweets or texting no previous study describes the full range of everyday registers found on the searchable web. These are the documents that readers encounter every time they do a Google search: from registers like news reports product reviews travel blogs discussion forums FAQs etc. Based on analysis of a large near-random corpus of web documents this monograph provides comprehensive situational lexical and grammatical descriptions of those registers. Beginning with a coding of each document in the corpus the description identifies the registers that are especially common on the searchable web versus those that are less commonly found. Multi-dimensional analysis is used to describe the overall patterns of linguistic variation among web registers while the second half of the book provides an in-depth description of each individual register including analyses of situational contexts and communicative purposes together with the typical lexical and grammatical characteristics associated with those contexts.

Hollis Frampton Michael Zryd, 2023-05-09 Hollis Frampton was an American filmmaker photographer and theorist who bridged the experimental film and contemporary art worlds in the 1960s and 1970s. Best known for avant-garde films including Zorns Lemma 1970 and Nostalgia 1971 Frampton spent his later years working on the unfinished epic Magellan a monumental cycle that used the metaphor of Ferdinand Magellan's circumnavigation of the world to rethink the nature and meanings of history modernity and cinema. Frampton's career was cut short by cancer at age 48 with his vast ambitions for the project left incomplete. This book is a groundbreaking and comprehensive account of this remarkable figure's work in its totality from Frampton's earliest films through Magellan. Michael Zryd explores the connections linking Frampton's art and thought to other media forms histories and cultural frameworks. He foregrounds Frampton's notion of the infinite cinema which redefined the parameters of the medium to encompass all forms of moving image and sound media across the past and future of cinematic possibility. Zryd analyzes Frampton's ambivalent relationship with modernism and the Enlightenment showing how the artist navigated between attraction to radical artistic investigation and awareness of this tradition's implication in colonialism and other oppressive power structures Shedding new light on Frampton's project of exploring and critiquing how cinema attempts to capture and understand the world this book also considers his significance for contemporary art
