

LITERARY ANALYSIS ESSAY OUTLINE

Introductory Paragraph

Begin with your thesis statement that tells the reader what your paper will try to prove. Get right to your opinion statement. No need for introductory summary. Eliminate phrases like "this paper will show that..." or "In this essay, I will discuss..."; rather state directly what the thesis is.

Make sure you have an "arguable" position that does not state the "obvious." Make an arguable statement by stating both sides (pro/con). Con=contrast to your position. Pro=support of your position.

Obvious/No Argument Thesis: Chris McCandless was a troubled young man with little understanding of the Alaskan wilderness.

Arguable Thesis with con/pro statements

(con) While Chris McCandless demonstrated strong convictions of living a simple life, unfettered by societal or parent expectations, (pro) he developed important relationships with key people that helped him on his journey into the wild. (State the two or three persons he became close to on his travels.)

Body Paragraphs

Support or develop your thesis through argument AND examples in each body paragraph. Each paragraph should include:
1) a topic sentence (critical analysis)

Sample Topic Sentence: "While Chris seemed alienated from his parents, he demonstrated a respect towards Ron Franz."

2) supporting examples and details that support thesis
(Do not summarize entire passages from any of the readings. Be particular in choosing the specific passages and either quote directly or paraphrase.) Synthesize evidence with critical analysis by stating why these examples support thesis.

3) closing or transitional statement at the end of the paragraph that summarizes the main idea of this paragraph or leads to the next discussion point. (critical analysis)

Concluding Paragraph

Draw the discussion to a close by either:

1) leaving the reader with an overall reaction

2) support the thesis with a final reflection – avoid restating thesis directly
