Studying Fiction Jessica Mason, Marcello Giovanelli, 2021-04-19 Studying Fiction provides a clear rationale alongside ideas and methods for teaching literature in schools from a cognitive linguistic perspective. Written by experienced linguists, teachers and researchers, it offers an overview of recent studies on reading and the mind, providing a detailed guide to concepts such as attention, knowledge, empathy, immersion, authorial intention, characterisation and social justice. The book synthesises research from cognitive linguistics in an applied way so that teachers and those researching English in education can consider ways to approach literary reading in the classroom. Each chapter draws on the latest research in cognitive stylistics and cognitive poetics, discusses a range of ideas related to the whole experience of conceptualising teaching fiction in the classroom and enacting it through practice, provides activities and reflection exercises for the practitioner, encourages engagement with important issues such as social justice, emotion and curriculum design. Together with detailed suggestions for further reading and a guide to available resources, this is an essential guide for all secondary English teachers as well as those teaching and researching in primary and undergraduate phases.

de Romanis Book 3 Katharine Radice, Angela Cheetham, Sonya Kirk, George Lord, 2025-03-20 Endorsed by OCR and under review by Eduqas, this popular Latin course for students aged 11-16 is breathing new life into Latin teaching and learning. de Romanis is a vibrant and accessible introduction to both the Latin language and the cultural world of the Romans. Building on the progression of Books 1 and 2, Book 3 continues to support language learning through clear and flexible explanation and exercises, giving students everything they need to continue to Latin GCSE and prepare for A Level. Going beyond language learning, this is the only book to guide students through the skills needed to read original Latin works across different periods and genres, preparing them to study the set texts at GCSE and beyond. What makes de Romanis so special? Language learning is split between Core and Additional to ensure effective differentiation and flexible timetabling. Fun and varied exercises include word identification, word manipulation and source analysis to encourage wider discussion. Vocabulary is consistently consolidated and the clear and systematic explanations of grammar encourage steady progress to GCSE and beyond. New to Book 3, each chapter ends with a section of original or very lightly adapted Latin texts with parallel idiomatic translations and full translation support. The course is supported by over 300 additional online resources to support your teaching. In Book 3, students meet the greatest of Latin authors: eyewitnesses, historians and poets. Cicero and Caesar document the Civil War through letters and histories. The epic poetry of Ovid and Virgil encapsulates a new era of social commentary through the veil of myth. The emperors are brought to life by their biographers and correspondents. Suetonius, Tacitus and Pliny and the daily lives and loves of ancient Rome are captured in the poetry of Catullus, Tibullus, Martial and Horace.
