Ray Bradbury Robin Anne Reid, 2000-09-30 Reviewers and critics have not always agreed on how well the science fiction label fit Ray Bradbury but the immense popularity of works like The Martian Chronicles and The Illustrated Man leaves no doubt as to the enduring status of this important writer This Critical Companion examines in a Literary Heritage chapter the situation of Bradbury's works within the science fiction genre and explores thematic concerns that set works like Fahrenheit 451 and Dandelion Wine apart from conventional popular SF writings This introduction to Bradbury written especially for students traces Bradbury's interesting life examining his early literary efforts his forays into Hollywood and his recent writing projects Eight of Bradbury's major works are discussed at length each in its own chapter including two works published within the last ten years A Graveyard for Lunatics 1990 and Green Shadows White Whale 1992 Clear thoughtful analysis is also given for The Martian Chronicles The Illustrated Man Something Wicked This Way Comes and Death Is a Lonely Business In each chapter analysis of the important literary components is given plot setting characters and themes In addition the genesis critical reception and an alternate reading of each work is also discussed in clear terms for students and general readers Suggestions for further reading on Bradbury and his writings are also provided in a select yet extensive bibliography This volume is ideal both for students reading Bradbury for the first time and for dedicated Bradbury fans who wish to appreciate his work with a deeper critical perspective

Fighting the White Knight Jocelyn Turner, 2023-01-12 In her final year of teaching Jocelyn Turner spent over one fifth of each week administering mandatory tests and quizzes She spent the remaining time preparing students to take those specific exams regardless of the background knowledge and preparedness of individual students While she was testing she could not teach Teachers were expected to present the same Common Core based grade specific material to all their students at the same time whether Jake was reading at a first grade level or Taylor at a ninth grade level It was a rare and lucky child who fit the profile of the year s onslaught of tests Since No Child Left Behind US schools have been burying students in tests and then drawing often misguided conclusions when sometimes the only conclusion anyone ought to draw is that student X obviously spent hours staring at a set of questions he or she did not understand and maybe could not even read We have been told that US education is in crisis Ms Turner agrees In Fighting the White Knight she argues that government mandates created and are now perpetuating this crisis depriving children of remedial learning instruction time and personal attention Fighting the White Knight also looks at the 1 6 trillion student debt crisis a consequence of today s single minded college bound pipeline vocabulary deficits left to fester due to narrowly targeted curricula and the sneaky gutting of elective vocational technical and gifted education Ms Turner concludes by advocating for changes she believes can rescue American education guiding children back to the safe inspirational learning experiences of a more student focused time Fahrenheit 451 Vocabulary Activities Shelly

Buchanan,2014-06-01 These vocabulary activities for Fahrenheit 451 incorporate key skills for college and career readiness The activities integrate vocabulary with a study of the text Includes text dependent questions definitions and text based sentences Holding Accountability Accountable Kenneth A. Sirotnik,2004 Kenneth Sirotnik asserts that however well intentioned past and current accountability practices in public education are miseducative misdirected and misanthropic In this provocative book well respected educators join Sirotnik to provide critical analyses and sophisticated perspectives on prevailing high stakes accountability practices They offer both conceptual and practical foundations for rethinking what it means to act responsibly when it comes to calling our schools school systems educators and students into account
