

Max the Hero Dog

- 1 A seventeen-year-old deaf and partly blind Australian dog achieved hero status for helping save a three-year-old girl who was lost overnight after wandering into bushland near her home.
- 2 According to reports in local media, Max, who is a cattle dog breed known as a blue heeler, followed the girl as she wandered more than a mile from her family property in New South Wales on Friday night, April 23, 2016. Max then stayed with her overnight as temperatures fell into the 50s and rain fell before leading the girl's grandmother and rescuers to her the next morning.
- 3 The girl named Aurora was reported missing at 3 p.m. Friday, but a search of woodlands and hills on the rural property in wet weather that evening found no trace of her. The next morning, more than one hundred volunteers and police resumed the search and found the girl safe and well with Max.
- 4 For keeping the little girl safe, Max was declared an honorary police dog.
- 5 Kelly Benston, a friend of Aurora's grandmother, Leisa Bennett, said Bennett and other searchers heard the girl faintly from the top of a mountain on Saturday morning.
