marriage is the ultimate desire of every grown adult of marriageable age but unfortunately and against the will God the activities of older folks in the field have painted a scary picture of the sacred institution making an ideal marriage appear unachievable to the younger generation This to me is an anomaly Considering the fact that marriage is the first agent of socialization to a child humanity owes it a duty to the younger generation to preserve the tenets of the institution based on old values handed down by God The endemic crisis witnessed today in the institution escalated because of limited knowledge of values inadequate culture of communication and poor handling of myths and fact of the institution These factors among others are regrettably responsible for the embarrassing rate of divorces witnessed globally The religious bodies have no doubt been contributing through workshops and seminars in solving the problem but the conflict in their doctrines and restrictions does not give them the needed free hand to address the problem considering the dynamism that characterize life at that stage so the problem has continued unabated Quest for Ideal Marriage is written without unnecessary doctrinal restrictions to unveil those avoidable human mistakes which the young people especially make in their quest for an ideal marriage With recourse and sincerity an Ideal Marriage is of course attainable by anybody who will discipline his herself and follow the rules as handed down in this book The difference between successful and unsuccessful marriage is simply distractions If people have made their marriage work you too can make yours work All you need is to acquire the relevant information as contained herein and intelligently follow the rules in its application and you will contract and enjoy a successful marriage That is a promise It is not a magic Zig Ziglar once said Just any dummy can succeed if he cares to know what it takes in this book you have it
