Proceedings of the 20th European Conference on Management, Leadership and Governance Mafalda Patuleia,2024

International Environments and Practices of Higher Education Andrea Caputo,Deborah Lock,Dieu Hack-Polay,2022-10-31 This book provides a critical review of the teaching practices in higher education in international contexts Sticky problems and debates about inclusivity diversity and cultural representation in the curriculum and classroom are explored through the eyes of the academics who negotiate complex teaching landscapes Public Relations Management in Africa Volume 2 Albert A. Anani-Bossman,Takalani E. Mudzanani,Cornelius B. Pratt,Isaac A.

Blankson,2023-07-19 This two part volume the first of its kind examines current pedagogical modules and research directions in public relations and communication management identifying emerging issues driving the practice in Africa In comparison to its Western and Asian counterparts literature on public relations management in Africa is limited and much of it is examined through the lenses of Western philosophies and pedagogies failing to reflect Africa s socioeconomic political and cultural contexts This project aims to change that Albert Volume 2 brings together African scholars moving beyond organizational impact to share the wider theoretical and practical perspectives on the practice of public relations on the continent within its cultural global and technological milieu Through conceptual discussions and empirical analyses this volume shows how Africa is gradually coming out of the shadows of the Western world by building a body of knowledge that reflects the nature of public relations management on the continent Chapters cover how public relations contributes to strategic management in Africa health communication and public relations management strategic management of issues as well as the implications of the fourth industrial revolution for public relations practice in Africa Nationalism, Politics and Anthropology Ilana van Wyk,Jimmy Pieterse,2022-02-28 In this book Ilana van Wyk and Jimmy Pieterse interrogate the question of political subjectivity and its role in the making of anthropology and anthropologists by revisiting the pitched battles between so called liberal social anthropologists and conservative nationalist volkekundiges in South Africa They pay particular attention to the social and cultural lives of two men who were central proponents of South African anthropology s two tales Kees van der Waal a former volkekundige and John Sharp once one of volkekunde s fiercest critics Through a series of conversations with Kees and John they show that the issues that once divided a local field still animate the ways in which centres and peripheries of global anthropology relate to one another and to foundational questions about the discipline s epistemology and political positionality Anchored in Place Bank, Leslie,Cloete, Nico,2018-11-05 Tensions in South African universities have traditionally centred around equity particularly access and affordability historical legacies such as apartheid and colonialism and the shape and structure of the higher education system What has not received sufficient attention is the contribution of the university to place based development This volume is the first in South Africa to engage seriously with the place based developmental role of universities In the international literature and policy there has been an increasing integration of the university with place based development especially in cities This volume weighs in on the debate by drawing attention to the place based roles and agency of South African universities in their local towns and cities It acknowledges that universities were given specific development roles in regions homelands and towns under apartheid and comments on why sub national place based development has not been a key theme in post apartheid higher education planning Given the developmental crisis in the country universities could be expected to play a more constructive and meaningful role in the development of their own precincts cities and regions But what should that role be Is there evidence that this is already occurring in South Africa despite the lack of a national policy framework What plans and programmes are in place and what is needed to expand the development agency of universities at the local level Who and what might be involved Where should the focus lie and who might benefit most and why Is there a need perhaps to approach the challenges of college towns secondary cities and metropolitan centers differently This book poses some of these questions as it considers the experiences of a number of South African universities including Wits Pretoria Nelson Mandela University and especially Fort Hare as one of its post centenary challenges
