1. What does Huck's reaction to being "dressed" by the Widow Douglas suggest about his personality?
Huck is not interested in being "civilized" and this reveals his adventurous and rebellious nature. He values his freedom and preferring his previous life where he felt free to act as he pleased.
2. Mr. Watson is a devout Christian, quite a pole (ump). What can the reader infer about slavery in the setting of the novel?

8. In chapter 4, Jim predicts Muck's future using a thought experiment. Why do you think Muck includes this event? How does it further develop characterization, and what other purpose might it serve?

12. How does the new judge tell Huck, and what lesson does the judge learn?
The new judge tells Huck by telling Huck to go into his father's suitcase and something to return. Huck's father, Huck's father, says the judge wrong by telling his new judge for nothing and making him shut in the judge. The judge learns that some people, like Huck's father, cannot be so easily helped.

1. Where does Huck's father take him and why does Huck feel the need to run away from home? Huck's father takes him to a cabin in the woods and beats him and roasts him in the cabin. Huck feels the need to run away from home because he realizes that it is his only option to escape his father's abuse.
2. How does Huck's father react to hearing a free-black man is useful? What does this reveal about his character and beliefs? Huck's father is outraged that a black man is well-behaved, educated, and even has the right to vote, which he says is an insult to himself and others who consider themselves superior. Based solely on that topic, this reaction reveals his deep-seated racism and ignorance, as well as his sense of entitlement and superiority.
