

Methods in Behavioral Research

The background of the cover is a photograph of a calm body of water with a series of dark, smooth stones arranged in two parallel lines that recede into the distance, creating a sense of perspective. The water is a light blue-grey color, and the sky is a pale, hazy blue.

Discovering Psychology Don Hockenbury,Sandra E. Hockenbury,2016-03-02 Sandra Hockenbury and new coauthor Susan Nolans remarkable textbook is grounded in the belief that all kinds of students can develop a real understanding of psychology and lasting scientific literacy The authors act on that belief by using relatable personal stories to communicate the concepts of psychological science and the process of science itself and by presenting important research in a clear not oversimplified way Hockenbury and Nolan also take full advantage of online learning creating activities in LaunchPad that have students thinking about psychology as scientists do New co author Susan Nolan of Seton Hall University was recently designated a Master Teacher by the Society for Teaching Psychology She regularly gives talks about incorporating scientific literacy into the introductory course and across the psychology curriculum

Handbook of Behavior Therapy in Education S.N. Elliott,F. Gresham,J.C. Witt,2013-11-11 What do we know about behavioral analysis and intervention in educational settings Given that educational institutions were among the first to embrace the new technology of behavior change in the late 1950s and early 1960s it is apparent that we have had the opportunity to learn a great deal The evolution of the field of behavior therapy has witnessed a change in the behavior therapist from an adolescent fascination with repeatedly demonstrating the effectiveness of the new technology to a mature recognition of the complex implications of the behavioral paradigm for individuals systems and society Many facts now taken for granted were considered impossibilities a mere two decades ago In her 1986 presidential address to Division 25 of the American Psychological Association Beth Sulzer Azaroff reviewed a number of changes in attitude in education that were strongly influenced by behavior therapy Most educators now agree that a everyone can learn b complex skills can be taught c precise general and durable performance can be taught and d barriers to learning can be overcome In addition we would add that behavior therapy is being applied to increasingly more complex human problems such as social skill deficits internalizing disorders and dysfunctional systems and organizations
