Background

Every BC company, which includes an Unlimited Liability Company, must file an annual report within two months of its anniversary date of incorporation. The annual report filing reminds the company to promptly file any change to the information shown in the Corporate Register. It also tells the Corporate Registry that the company is still active.

If a company does not file its annual report within two months of its anniversary date, it will not be in good standing.

The registrar may dissolve a company if the company fails to file in each of two consecutive years an Annual Report required by the Business Corporations Act.

A company's annual reports must be filed in consecutive order.

If the company has outstanding annual reports that were due before January 26, 2002, those annual reports must be submitted to the Corporate Registry on paper. Only annual reports due after January 26, 2002, can be filed electronically.

Visit the downloads page to download Form 6 - BC Annual Report for submission to the registry.
