history of alternative political media From independent newsletters in the 1950s to talk radio in the 1970s to cable television in the 1980s pioneers on the left and right developed alternative media outlets that made politics more popular and ultimately more partisan When campaign operatives took up e mail blogging and social media they only supercharged these trends At a time when political engagement has never been greater and trust has never been lower Political Junkies is essential reading for understanding how we got here Great American Hypocrites Glenn Greenwald, 2008-10-07 A takedown of the GOP's deceitful propaganda machine from the blogger of Salon's Unclaimed Territory and the author of the New York Times bestsellers How Would a Patriot Act and A Tragic Legacy Ever since the cowboy image of Ronald Reagan was sold to Americans the Republican Party has used the same John Wayne imagery to support its candidates and take elections We all know how they govern but the right wing propaganda machine is very adept at hijacking debate and marketing their candidates as effectively as the Marlboro Man For example Myth The Republican nominee is an upstanding regular guy who shares the values of the common man Reality He divorced his first wife in order to marry a young multimillionaire heiress whose family then funded his political career Myth Republicans are strong on defense and will keep us safe Reality They prey on fears and their endless wars make America far less secure Myth Republicans are the party of fiscal restraint and small limited government Reality Soaring deficits unchecked presidential power and an increasingly invasive surveillance state are par for the course The first book to dissect the Republican Cult of Personality and leave it openly exposed in its unabashed shameful depravity Great American Hypocrites is a deeply necessary call out to Democrats to attack the GOP with their competitor's very own weapons Praise for Great American Hypocrites Intelligent insightful Daily Kos Glenn Greenwald has done it again Alan Colmes Glenn Greenwald is a treasure BuzzFlash Spinner in Chief Stephen J. Farnsworth, 2015-12-03 As the U S enters the last lap of the 2008 presidential election season the media and the candidates are in full gear exploiting each other often at the expense of public information and awareness This book looks at how presidents and presidential candidates use television the Internet and newspapers to promote their policies and themselves even as they are sometimes manipulated by the media they so avidly seek Looking at White House media strategies relating to the Iraq War and occupation health care reform tax and budget debates the debate over Bush's competence the Clinton Lewinsky sex scandal and the early battles of the 2008 presidential election media scholar and former journalist Stephen Farnsworth examines how presidents shift the direction and limit the amount of public debate over policies to favor themselves and how reporters and Internet commentators often help them do so The result short circuits the public's role in evaluating competing visions for the country's future and the legislative branch's role in policy making The modern presidential obsession with public relations and media willingness to be used to advance executive power undermine the country's long term ability to deal with crucial problems including foreign and military relations a growing government debt and public health care shortcomings Brill's Content , 1998-07 Issues in News and Reporting CQ
