Readers' Guide, 1912      Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature Anna Lorraine Guthrie, Bertha Tannehill, Neltje Marie Tannehill Shimer, 1919      Register Variation in Indian English Chandrika Balasubramanian, 2009

Register Variation in Indian English constitutes the first large scale empirical investigation of an international variety of English Using a combination of the corpus compiled for this project and relevant sections of ICE India as its database this work tests existing descriptions and characterizations of English in India and provides the first empirical account of register variation in Indian English or indeed any international variety of English Included in this survey are linguistic features that have been examined before and others that have not From an empirical standpoint it comments on the process of Indianization of the English used in India The book will be of interest to readers beyond specialists of Indian English as it is one of very few studies to undertake a large scale corpus analysis for the purpose of dialect research The book provides a model on which future studies of international Englishes can be based
