English/language Arts Curriculum Resource Handbook, 1992 Handbook of the Cultural Foundations of Learning Na'ilah Suad Nasir, Carol D. Lee, Roy Pea, Maxine McKinney de Royston, 2020-05-01 Edited by a diverse group of expert collaborators the Handbook of the Cultural Foundations of Learning is a landmark volume that brings together cutting edge research examining learning as entailing inherently cultural processes Conceptualizing culture as both a set of social practices and connected to learner identities the chapters synthesize contemporary research in elaborating a new vision of the cultural nature of learning moving beyond summary to reshape the field toward studies that situate culture in the learning sciences alongside equity of educational processes and outcomes With the recent increased focus on culture and equity within the educational research community this volume presents a comprehensive innovative treatment of what has become one of the field's most timely and relevant topics The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license Funded by The Spencer Foundation Price List and Order Form for Literature Instructional

Materials, 1987 Secondary Textbook Review, 1988 This book is intended as a resource for teachers and curriculum developers who select textbooks for secondary English courses It includes a compilation of 32 factual textbook reviews obtained from the application of a review instrument which was based on the California Model Curriculum Standards Grades Nine through Twelve English Language Arts and the English Language Arts Framework for California Public Schools Kindergarten through Grade Twelve The instrument described in the book was applied to selected English composition grammar and reading literature textbooks The book suggests that the resulting reviews can be used by teachers as a screening device to reduce the number of books they review and pilot studies they conduct thus educators will have more time to do in depth reviews of two or three textbooks which appear to match their course requirements and their students academic needs The book also states that the review instrument can be adapted by districts to reflect their own English objectives and test results Every review in the book includes two parts and a publisher's description which appears in the Appendix a section which depicts the extent to which the emphasis on content and process is given to each of the topics in the textbooks reviewed and a section which includes topics on content and processes which might be found only in teachers editions The book does not make assessments regarding the quality of the books reviewed but rather provides information which teachers may find useful in making quality judgments and selecting specific textbooks for English programs SR
