This book invites readers to engage with the rich and complex debates of contemporary English education, outlining new possibilities to revive the teaching of English. Each chapter includes example vignettes from classrooms which tell something of the story of English teaching today. The authors then offer an exploration of the opportunities for a re-imagining of English, the murmurs of teachers and pupils that resist such closures. The chapters explore new thinking, new practices and new possibilities for English classrooms as inclusive, emancipatory, critical and creative spaces.
