2. HISTORY

Abstract: This paper examines the relationship between the quality of the information provided by the media and the quality of the information provided by the government. It is argued that the quality of the information provided by the media is a function of the quality of the information provided by the government. The paper also examines the relationship between the quality of the information provided by the media and the quality of the information provided by the public. It is argued that the quality of the information provided by the media is a function of the quality of the information provided by the public. The paper concludes that the quality of the information provided by the media is a function of the quality of the information provided by the government and the public.
