Gender and Humor Delia Chiaro, Raffaella Baccolini, 2014-05-09 In the mid seventies both gender studies and humor studies emerged as new disciplines with scholars from various fields undertaking research in these areas The first publications that emerged in the field of gender studies came out of disciplines such as philosophy history and literature while early works in the area of humor studies initially concentrated on language linguistics and psychology Since then both fields have flourished but largely independently This book draws together and focuses the work of scholars from diverse disciplines on intersections of gender and humor giving voice to approaches in disciplines such as film television literature linguistics translation studies and popular culture The Primer of Humor Research Victor Raskin, 2008-11-06 The book is intended to provide a definitive view of the field of humor research for both beginning and established scholars in a variety of fields who are developing an interest in humor and need to familiarize themselves with the available body of knowledge Each chapter of the book is devoted to an important aspect of humor research or to a disciplinary approach to the field and each is written by the leading expert or emerging scholar in that area There are two primary motivations for the book The positive one is to collect and summarize the impressive body of knowledge accumulated in humor research in and around Humor The International Journal of Humor Research The negative motivation is to prevent the embarrassment to and from the first timers often established experts in their own field who venture into humor research without any notion that there already exists a body of knowledge they need to acquire before publishing anything on the subject unless they are in the business of reinventing the wheel and have serious doubts about its being round The organization of the book reflects the main groups of scholars participating in the increasingly popular and high powered humor research movement throughout the world an 800 to 1 000 strong contingent and growing The chapters are organized along the same lines History Research Issues Main Directions Current Situation Possible Future Bibliography and use the authors definitive credentials not to promote an individual view but rather to give the reader a good comprehensive and condensed view of the area Hometown Humor Loyal Jones,Billy Edd Wheeler,2006-01-26 Here are 300 jokes and stories heard on porch swings in barber shops corner cafes and beauty parlors told by famous and common alike with chapters on marriage aging work education politics and sports Celebrities everyday folks and students of the Clinton County Elementary School in Clinton County Kentucky serve up a feast of jokes and stories from oral traditions
