Memoirs of an American Gypsy Reece Gesumaria, 2013-06-11

Memoirs of an American Gypsy is a collection of stories by a young woman on an invigorating adventure through Europe. With an overstuffed backpack and over planned future she begins the journey of a lifetime. Her plane to return home leaves without her as her definition of home shifts. She falls deeply in love with foreign cultures, alternative communities, tongue tingling languages and welcoming families along the way. Plans and fears melt away to reveal the freedom that lies in the core of us all. She has emerged from tents, mansions, college dormitories and an abandoned wheat factory to share her journey, the tips n tricks of hitchhiking, trekking the world without needing to pay for a bed. The biggest secret to gypsy survival without cash is faith in humanity. The goodness of people and the inevitable connections that form will dissolve our stereotypes, fears and inhibitions, leaving us with trust, abundance and a contagious joy that will help make the world a better place. Tales of urban exploration, charming castle villages, a giant community squat, breathtaking nature, gnarly music festivals, a mud war, police searches, unicorn spotting, a pirates cave, Vikings, rainbows and human connection fill the pages of this book. Good luck holding on tight to your pre conceived notions of the world of traveling because this is going to be a wild ride.

The Grand Gypsy: A Memoir Ottavio Gesmundo, 2016-06-09. What do Adolf Hitler, Mahatma Gandhi and Ed Sullivan have in common? Ottavio Canestrelli crossed paths with each. He performed with the Krone Circus in Italy and Germany from 1922 to 1924. On the eve of Hitler's rise to power, he witnessed a rally for Mahatma Gandhi in India in 1931 and he appeared twice on the Ed Sullivan Show during the 1960s. In The Grand Gypsy, Canestrelli, with his grandson Ottavio Gesmundo, tells the story of a man who witnessed historical events as he toured with his family through five continents and countless nations, including experiences fighting in World War I and the excavation of the Sphinx in Egypt. It shares memories of life in the circus, filled with daring feats and tragic mishaps. With over one hundred and seventy historical photographs included, this memoir chronicles a circus dynasty from the late nineteenth century in Europe to the new millennium in the United States.

Gypsies and the British Imagination, 1807-1930 Deborah Epstein Nord, 2006. Deborah Epstein Nord traces the nearly ubiquitous British preoccupation with Gypsies in imaginative works by John Clare, Walter Scott, William Wordsworth, George Eliot, Arthur Conan Doyle and D. H. Lawrence. She also exhumes lesser known literary, ethnographic and historical texts exploring the fascinating histories of the nomadic writer George Borrow, the Gypsy Lore Society, Dora Yates and other rarely examined figures and institutions. These textual representations are characterized by a tension between Gypsies as an alien, often despised race and the psychic or aesthetic desire to dissolve the boundary between English and Gypsy worlds. Nord suggests that by the beginning of the twentieth century romantic identification with Gypsies hardened into caricature and served to obscure the realities of Gypsy life and history This phenomenon is reflected most famously in The Virgin and the Gipsy in which D H Lawrence both exploits and criticizes the myth of Gypsies unfettered sensuality closeness to nature and opposition to the oppressive strictures of modern life The Best Books William Swan Sonnenschein,1891 Memoirs read before the Anthropological Society of London Anthropological Society of London,1870 Memoirs Read Before the Anthropological Society of London, 1867-8-9 Anthropological Society of London,1870 Anthropology and Autobiography Judith Okely,Helen Callaway,1992-07-02 Anthropological writings by anthropologists in the field have long been a valuable tool to the profession But until now the theoretical implications of its use have not been fully explored Anthropology and Autobiography provides unique insights into the fieldwork autobiographical materials and or textual critiques of anthropologists many of whose ethnographies are already familiar It considers the role of the anthropologist as fieldworker and writer examining the ways in which nationality age gender and personal history influence the anthropologist s behavior towards the individuals he is observing This volume also contributes to debates about reflexivity and the political responsibility of the anthropologist who as a participant has traditionally made only stylized appearances in the academic text The contributors examine their work among peoples in Africa Japan the Caribbean Greece Shetland England indigenous Australia Indonesia and Sri Lanka Autobiography is developed alongside political intellectual and historical changes The anthropologists confront and examine issues of racism reciprocity and friendships Anthropology and Autobiography will appeal to anthropologists and social scientists interested in ethnographic approaches the self reflexivity qualitative methodology and the production of texts Memoirs Charles Godfrey Leland,1893 The Memoirs of Ceija Stojka, Child Survivor of the Romani Holocaust Ceija Stojka,2022 First English translation of the memoirs of Austrian Romani Holocaust survivor writer visual artist musician and activist Ceija Stojka 1933 2013 along with poems an interview historical photos and reproductions of her artworks Is this the whole world This question begins the first of three memoirs by Austrian Romani writer visual artist musician and activist Ceija Stojka 1933 2013 told from her perspective as a child interned in three Nazi concentration camps from age nine to twelve Written by a child survivor much later in life the memoirs offer insights into the nexus of narrative and extreme trauma expressing the full spectrum of human emotions fear and sorrow at losing loved ones joy and relief when reconnecting with family and friends desire to preserve some memories while attempting to erase others horror at acts of genocide and hope arising from dreams of survival In addition to annotated translations of the three memoirs the book includes two of Stojka s poems and an interview by Karin Berger editor of the original editions of Stojka s memoirs as well as color reproductions of several of her artworks and historical photographs An introduction contextualizes her works within Romani history and culture and a glossary informs the reader about the concentrationary universe Because the memoirs show how Stojka navigated male dominated postwar Austrian culture generally discriminatory to Roma and the patriarchal aspects of Romani culture itself the book is a contribution not only to Holocaust Studies but also to Austrian Studies Romani Studies and Women s and Gender Studies
