Lord Scarman Report Brixton:

Scarman and After John Benyon, 2014-05-17 Scarman and After Essays Reflecting on Lord Scarman's Report the Riots and their Aftermath covers the proceedings of a conference on Lord Scarman's social and economic issues held at the University of Leicester in April 1982 organized by the Continuing Education Unit of the University's Department of Adult Education The Lord Scarman Report itemized and stressed particular issues that arose from the Brixton disorders This text is organized into five parts encompassing 22 chapters The first parts explore the political agenda of the Brixton riot and Lord Scarman's report explanations images and impact of riots Another part is concerned with the issues in policy making related to the community public and accountability These topics are followed by discussions of the issues of unemployment and racial disadvantages in cities The last part contains a summary of the Report This book will prove useful to historians sociologists and researchers

Violent Racism Benjamin Bowling, 1999 This fascinating book documents the everyday abuse assault and intimidation that is suffered by black and Asian people in Great Britain every day using information gathered in an East London London case study The author explains and analyses the process through which violence is targeted at these minorities and the role that the ideas and language of racial exclusion take in this process The failure of the police to respond to this problem is then looked at in depth This book is based on detailed analysis of official documents a victimization survey interviews and direct observation seen in the overall context of the history of race relations in Britain The author describes many of the thousands of racist attacks that have occurred in recent years and the events in the last two decades that have shaped English racism and the political response to it In this paperback edition Ben Bowling's Preface examines the racist murder of the black teenager Stephen Lawrence whose killing in cold blood on an ordinary English street in April 1993 did not hit the headlines until February 1999 causing reverberations across the whole body of British politics and beyond

ThirdWay, 1982-04 Monthly current affairs magazine from a Christian perspective with a focus on politics society economics and culture The Scarman Report Leslie Scarman Baron Scarman, 1986 Judiciaries in Comparative Perspective H. P. Lee, 2011-08-11 An independent and impartial judiciary is fundamental to the existence and operation of a liberal democracy Focussing on Australia Canada New Zealand South Africa the United Kingdom and the United States this comparative 2011 study explores four major issues affecting the judicial institution These issues relate to the appointment and discipline of judges judges and freedom of speech the performance of non judicial functions by judges and judicial bias and recusal and each is set within the context of the importance of maintaining public confidence in the judiciary The essays highlight important episodes or controversies affecting members of the judiciary to illustrate relevant principles

Revolting Subjects Imogen Tyler, 2013-04-11 Revolting Subjects is a groundbreaking account of social abjection in contemporary Britain exploring how particular groups of people are figured as revolting and how they in turn revolt against their abject subjectification The book utilizes a number of high profile and in depth case studies including chavs asylum seekers Gypsies and Travellers and the 2011 London riots to examine the ways in which individuals negotiate restrictive neoliberal ideologies of selfhood In doing so Tyler argues for a deeper psychosocial understanding of the role of representational forms in producing marginality social exclusion and injustice whilst also detailing how stigmatization and scapegoating are resisted through a variety of aesthetic and political strategies Imaginative and original Revolting Subjects introduces a range of new insights into neoliberal societies and will be essential reading for those concerned about widening inequalities growing social unrest and social justice in the wider global context Contemporary Issues in Global Criminal Justice Ed Johnston,Sophie Marsh,2022-08-22 Contemporary Issues in Global Criminal Justice provides a holistic analysis of modern criminal justice issues encompassing the pre trial investigative and post conviction stages of criminal justice in legal settings across the world The contributors acknowledge and examine the vast array of challenges in global criminal justice from the role of the International Criminal Court to policing the integration of technology and how marginalized groups such as sex workers and those with addictions are treated in the courts With contributions from scholars in England and Wales New Zealand Croatia Spain the Netherlands Canada and The Republic of North Macedonia this book is not limited to one jurisdiction and highlights that criminal justice is very much a global issue in a state of crisis From policing to the courts it is in urgent need of reform Without a competent criminal justice system justice does not exist This book would be of interest to scholars in the legal criminal justice and criminology fields Police Misconduct, Complaints, and Public Regulation John Beggs,Hugh Davies,2009-07-09 This new work covers the highly sensitive topic of who polices the police Dealing with all aspects of the law relating to the regulation of the police it gives detailed analysis and guidance on practice at complaints and misconduct hearings and the role and powers of the IPCC and of its statutory guidance Appendices include regulations and associated Home Office Guidance under the 2004 and 2008 performance and misconduct regimes and the new 2008 PAT rules Building Communities, Beating Crime Great Britain. Home Office,2004 This White Paper sets out the Government s plans for a second phase of reforms of the police service in England and Wales The reforms detailed have three broad objectives i the creation of dedicated neighbourhood policing teams across the country including police constables community support officers CSOs and wardens designed to make the service more accessible accountable and visible in the community ii further modernisation of the police workforce with more capacity for front line policing including 25 000 new community support officers and wardens by 2008 a new improvement agency to ensure policing is driven by intelligence good practice and performance monitoring and an enhanced training and career development structure to improve leadership and management skills at all levels and iii greater citizen involvement in determining how their local communities are policed including minimum national service standards for every force by 2006 that can be built on locally These reforms are designed to embed a strong responsive customer service culture throughout the police service and to help build trust and confidence in relations between the police and the public GCSE Social Science Ann Cotterrell,Anthony Russell,1988 A resource for GCSE Social Science courses covering elements of politics sociology and economics It is skills based with a range of data from original sources for analysis and interpretation It takes an active learning approach with questions to encourage understanding and interpretation

Race to the Bottom Azfar Shafi,Ilyas Nagdee,2022-06-20 Antiracist movements are more mainstream than ever before Liberal democracies boast of their policies designed to stamp out racism in all walks of life Why then is racism still ever present in our society This is not an accident but by design Capitalism is structured by racism and has relentlessly attacked powerful movements Race to the Bottom traces our current crisis back decades to the fragmentation of Britain s Black Power movements and their absorption into NGOs and the Labour Party The authors call for recovering radical histories of antiracist struggle championing modern activism and infusing them with the urgency of our times replacing anxieties over unconscious bias and rival claims for representation with the struggle for a new socialist multi racial organising from below

There Ain't No Black in the Union Jack Paul Gilroy,2013-10-18 This classic book is a powerful indictment of contemporary attitudes to race By accusing British intellectuals and politicians on both sides of the political divide of refusing to take race seriously Paul Gilroy caused immediate uproar when this book was first published in 1987 A brilliant and explosive exploration of racial discourses There Ain t No Black in the Union Jack provided a powerful new direction for race relations in Britain Still dynamite today and as relevant as ever this Routledge Classics edition includes a new introduction by the author

Race and Antiracism in Black British and British Asian Literature Dave Gunning,2010-01-01 Drawing on a selection of works from such prominent authors as Monica Ali Hanif Kureishi and Zadie Smith Race and Antiracism in Black British and British Asian Writing offers the first extended exploration of the cultural impact of race and antiracism in Britain through the lens of black British and British Asian literature With antiracism the politics of opposing discrimination increasingly determining racial categorizations and identities this study traces its influence over the last two decades on individual identities and the wider political debate including the changing attitudes toward Muslim culture in Britain and the role of Africa as a symbolic focus for black political culture This volume will be of interest to anyone seeking a better understanding of the nuances of antiracism in Britain
