Field Guide to the Wild World of Religion Pamela Dewey,2013-02 The American religious scene in 1955 was a very tame and predictable world It matched the tame predictable world of women s clothing where most women going out shopping wore a dress with coordinating gloves hat and shoes And it matched the tame predictable world of children s toys where almost every young girl yearned for a baby doll that said Ma Ma and almost every boy needed a coonskin cap Choices of fashions toys preachers and churches were limited and domesticated Fifty years later the tame predictable world of 1950s fashions and toys is long gone Women go shopping in everything from sweatshirts and jeans to tube tops and short shorts And both boys and girls want the latest Sponge Bob Square Pants video game The same kind of transformation has gone on in the world of religion It is no longer tame and predictable either Welcome to the Wild World of Religion of the 21st Century Explore its habitats identify some of the inhabitants and learn about their characteristics and customs in this Field Guide

Television Variety Shows David M. Inman, 2014-12-03 For the few hundred television viewers in 1946 a special treat on the broadcast schedule was the variety show called Hour Glass. It was the first TV program to go beyond talking heads, cooking demonstrations and sporting events featuring instead dancers, comics, singers and long commercials for its sponsor Chase and Sanborn coffee. Within two years another variety show, Texaco Star Theatre, became the first true television hit and would be credited with the sales of thousands of television sets. The variety show formula was a staple of television in its first 30 years in part because it lent itself to a medium where everything had to be live and preferably inside a studio. Most of the early television stars including Jackie Gleason, Milton Berle, Sid Caesar, Ed Sullivan, Red Skelton, Dinah Shore and Arthur Godfrey rose to prominence through weekly variety shows. In the 1960s major stars such as Jerry Lewis, Dean Martin, Judy Garland and Danny Kaye were hosting variety shows. By the 1970s the format was giving way to sitcoms and dramas but pop music stars Sonny and Cher, Tony Orlando and Dawn and Donny and Marie Osmond hosted some of the last of the species. This book details 57 variety shows from the 1940s through the 1990s. A history of each show is first provided followed by a brief look at each episode, air date, guest stars, sketches performed and a listing of songs featured are included

Wired TV Denise Mann, 2014-02-11 This collection looks at the post-network television industry's heady experiments with new forms of interactive storytelling or wired TV that took place from 2005 to 2010 as the networks responded to the introduction of broadband into the majority of homes and the proliferation of popular participatory Web 2.0 companies like Facebook, YouTube and Twitter. Contributors address a wide range of issues from the networks' sporadic efforts to engage fans using transmedia storytelling to the production inefficiencies that continue to dog network television to the impact of multimedia convergence and multinational corporate conglomeration on entrepreneurial creativity. With essays from such top scholars as Henry Jenkins, John T. Caldwell and Jonathan Gray and from new and exciting voices emerging in this field, Wired TV elucidates the myriad new digital threats and the equal number of digital opportunities that have become part and parcel of today's post-network era. Readers will quickly recognize the familiar television franchises on which the contributors focus, including Lost, The Office, Entourage, Battlestar Galactica, The L Word and Heroes in order to reveal their impact on an industry in transition.
