Behavior and Environment T. Garling,R.G. Golledge,1993-01-28 Active researchers in the areas of geography and psychology have contributed to this book Both fields are capable of increasing our scientific knowledge of how human behavior is interfaced with the molar physical environment Such knowledge is essential for the solution of many of today s most urgent environmental problems Failure to constrain use of scarce resources pollution due to human activities creation of technological hazards and deteriorating urban quality due to vandalism and crime are all well known examples The influence of psychology in geographical research has long been appreciated but it is only recently that psychologists have recognized they have something to learn from geography In identifying the importance of two way interdisciplinary communication a psychologist and a geographer have been invited to each write a chapter in this book on a designated topic so that close comparisons can be drawn as to how the two disciplines approach the same difficulties Since the disciplines are to some extent complementary it is hoped that this close collaboration will have synergistic effects on the

Talking with Your Kids about God Natasha Crain, 2017-10-17 Christian parenting is hard work and it's getting harder. Parents have a deep desire to pass on their faith but fear that today's increasingly skeptical and hostile world will eventually lead their kids to reject the truth of Christianity. That leaves many parents feeling overwhelmed, uncertain of what they can do to help their children given the difficulty and extent of the faith challenges they will face. This practical and timely resource gives parents the confidence of knowing what to discuss with their children and how to discuss it in order to facilitate impactful conversations that will form the basis of a lifelong faith. In a friendly parent-to-parent voice, Natasha Crain identifies 30 specific conversations about God that parents must have with their children, organizing them under the categories of the existence of God, science and God, the nature of God, believing in God, the difference God makes. Chapters are sequenced in a curriculum-oriented way to provide a cumulative learning experience, making this book a flexible resource for use in multiple settings: homes, church classes, youth groups, small groups, private Christian schools, and homeschools. Every chapter has a step-by-step conversation guide with discussion questions and tips, and content is readily adaptable for use with kids of any age, elementary through high school.

Endorsements My prayer is that God will use this book to both motivate and equip you to help your kids develop convictions about their faith. From the foreword by Sean McDowell, PhD, Biola University professor, speaker, and author of more than eighteen books, including A New Kind of Apologist. I can't think of a more relevant or more needed book for parents raising kids in today's culture. This book on apologetics will lead parents in critical conversations that will help grow and guide kids to be lifelong followers of Christ. Kristen Welch, author of Raising Grateful Kids in an Entitled World. Hey parents, do you want to reduce the chances that your child will follow the crowd to the point of rejecting Christ and the values and truths you hold so dearly? Then you need to have the conversations that Natasha Crain so brilliantly describes in this book. Prevent heartbreak later by reading and heeding this book now. Frank Turek, PhD, president of CrossExamined Ministries and author of I Don't Have Enough Faith to Be an Atheist and Stealing from God. May this book lead to thousands more Moms and Dads engaging with their kids through an intelligent faith. And may there be tens of thousands more kids who feel loved because the adults in their lives take their questions seriously. Jeff Myers, PhD, president, Summit Ministries.
