Geological Survey Water-supply Paper ,1957 Food cravings Adrian Meule, Boris C. Rodríguez-Martín,2015-05-26

Food craving refers to an intense desire or urge to consume a specific food In Western or Westernized societies these craved foods usually have high palatability and are energy dense that is they have high sugar and or fat content Accordingly the most often craved food is chocolate Food craving is a multidimensional experience as it includes cognitive e g thinking about food emotional e g desire to eat or changes in mood behavioral e g seeking and consuming food and physiological e g salivation aspects Experiences of food craving are common that is they do not reflect abnormal eating behavior per se However very intense and frequent food craving experiences are associated with obesity and eating disorders such as bulimia nervosa and binge eating disorder The aim of this research topic was to gather new contributions to a variety of aspects of food craving which include its assessment cognitive and emotional triggers moderators and correlates of food craving and the relevance of food cravings in clinical issues among others

Music of Exile Michael Haas,2023-10-10
What happens to a composer when persecution and exile means their true music no longer has an audience In the 1930s composers and musicians began to flee Hitler s Germany to make new lives across the globe The process of exile was complex although some of their works were celebrated these composers had lost their familiar cultures and were forced to navigate xenophobia as well as entirely different creative terrain Others far less fortunate were in a kind of internal exile composing under a ruthless dictatorship or in concentration camps and ghettos Michael Haas sensitively records the experiences of this musical diaspora Torn between cultures and traditions these composers produced music that synthesized old and new worlds some becoming core portions of today s repertoire some relegated to the desk drawer Encompassing the musicians interned as enemy aliens in the United Kingdom the brilliant Hollywood compositions of Erich Wolfgang Korngold and the Brecht inspired theater music of Kurt Weill Haas shows how these musicians shaped the twentieth century soundscape and offers a moving record of the incalculable effects of war on culture

Artefacts, Archives, and Documentation in the Relational Museum Mike Jones,2021-07-14 Artefacts Archives and Documentation in the Relational Museum provides the first interdisciplinary study of the digital documentation of artefacts and archives in contemporary museums while also exploring the implications of polyphonic relational thinking on collections documentation Drawing on case studies from Australia the United Kingdom and the United States the book provides a critical examination of the history of collections management and documentation since the introduction of computers to museums in the 1960s demonstrating how technology has contributed to the disconnection of distributed collections knowledge Jones also highlights how separate documentation systems have developed managed by distinct increasingly professionalised staff impacting our ability to understand and use what we find in museums and their ever expanding online collections Exploring this legacy allows us to rethink current practice focusing less on individual objects and more on the rich stories and interconnected resources that lie at the heart of the contemporary plural participatory relational museum Artefacts Archives and Documentation in the Relational Museum is essential reading for those who wish to better understand the institutional silos found in museums and the changes required to make museum knowledge more accessible The book is a particularly important addition to the fields of museum studies archival science information management and the history of cultural heritage technologies Post Magazine and Insurance Monitor ,1926 Accounts and Papers of the House of Commons Great Britain.
