Lost Minden Images Of America:

Lost Minden John A. Agan, 2015-01-19 Minden has transformed quite a bit since Charles Vedeer founded it in 1835 The town has suffered damages of the Civil War and Reconstruction and between 1872 and 1933 the devastation of five fires and a killer tornado Despite disaster Minden continues to progress but adaptation and rebuilding have caused many familiar landmarks to vanish from the local landscape The 1902 fire led to the enactment of a city ordinance banning wooden structures downtown as a result many edifices were reconstructed Today not a single building in the business district predates the 1870s and the roles of those still standing such as the First National Bank which is expected to reopen as a restaurant are continually changing In 1918 another fire destroyed the Minden Lumber Mill the town's largest industry Later in the 20th century the development of a city government complex demolished an entire shopping district the 1905 Webster Parish Courthouse and Minden City Hall Lost Minden captures catastrophes celebrations storefronts and back streets that otherwise only remain in memories John Agan is a lifelong Minden resident who has been actively involved in local history writing and research for more than 30 years In the course of these activities he accumulated most of the vintage photographs in this volume that depict the Minden that has since been lost Minden Perserverance and Pride John A. Agan, 2002-09-25 The beautiful historic town of Minden is tucked up in the pine filled hills of northern Louisiana Established by Charles Hanse Veeder in 1835 a third generation German American originally from upstate New York Minden rapidly earned a reputation as a town of unique character aided by the Minden Academy and the early introduction of the Methodist Baptist and Episcopalian religions After Veeder left the town the hearty settlers remained to foster Minden's growth and development Although the seat of Webster Parish today Minden has faced expansion fluctuations caused by natural disaster and economic hardship but followed by ambitious industrial endeavors and renewed hope Minden thrived commercially with economic gain centralized in Bayou Dorcheat which was composed of separate landings acting as shipping points for goods coming from much of northern Louisiana Industries like cotton farming and the Minden Lumber Mill formed in 1901 as one of the largest mills in the United States at the time caused the town s population to nearly double in just ten years Under the leadership of great men like E S Richardson Minden also became a model for other towns of similar size in the field of education At the same time disastrous fires a catastrophic tornado and the devastation of the steamboat trade on Bayou Dorcheat by the coming of the railroad challenged the community in the ever changing twentieth century Lost in the Desert Meish Goldish, 2014-08-01 In the spring of 1994 Mauro Prosperi took part in a grueling six day race called the Marathon of the Sands Mauro along with 133 other runners set out to race 151 miles 234 km across the hot and sandy Sahara Desert On the fourth day of the race a sandstorm struck Millions of grains of sand whirled in the air pounding and stinging Mauro s skin For six hours the fierce sandstorm made it almost impossible to see After the storm ended Mauro saw no other runners and there was no trail just endless mounds of sand He was lost in the Sahara Would Mauro make it out of
