

WILEY SHERWOOD WOOLVERTON

The cover of the textbook features a dark, textured background. A large, glowing blue, amorphous shape, resembling a microorganism or a cell, is the central focus. It is surrounded by a network of thin, blue, branching lines that spread across the cover. Scattered throughout the scene are numerous small, orange, oval-shaped objects, some of which appear to be attached to the blue network. In the lower-left corner, there is a small, green, leaf-like structure. The overall aesthetic is scientific and artistic, representing the microscopic world.
