

JANUARY ... DOES IT BRING YOU JOY?

- 1 January is the time for renewal on many fronts. It's the time of the year to re-evaluate everything. If something or someone doesn't bring you joy, it's pretty pointless carrying on with it. If we want the best, we must do our best. We must keep our family space safe and secure so that we are thriving as a people and as a nation. 5
- 2 In order to live their best lives, people are spreading themselves thinner and thinner with multiple streams of income. In the process we earn more but live less, we lose our focus of what is important.
- 3 With social media, keeping up with other Instagrammers are having a devastating effect on self-perception. Everything appears to be real perfect, but the fabric of our society is frazzled. Use January to take stock and start navigating new ways of doing things. Instead of multiple streams of sole sessions, travel more, and connect with people and places that bring you joy. 10

Norms and Illegality Walter E. Little, Cristiana Panella, 2021-05-06 Norms and Illegality Intimate Ethnographies and Politics explores liminal and illegal practices in relation to political control and cultural normativity The contributors draw on years of ethnographic experiences in Greece Guatemala Hong Kong Italy Madagascar Mali Philippines and Thailand to study the contradictions of what is legal and illegal They explore the production of illegal subjects by the state the creation of illegal and normative values by liminal and illegal actors and the mutual entanglements of legal and illegal in the public domains of markets and trade networks This volume shows that criminalization policies are not necessarily oriented toward erasing crime Instead the contributors maintain that opaque spaces ensure the efficacy of control and outwardly conform to the rhetoric and ethics of global neoliberalism Within these contexts the contributors shed light on moral economies and frames of value entailed in systems of representation that have been set up by individuals who are deemed illegal liminal or deviant in their confrontations with the state This book is recommended for students and scholars of anthropology political science and urban studies

Dominant Language Constellations Joseph Lo Bianco, Larissa Aronin, 2020-09-07 This volume is dedicated to the concept and several applications of Dominant Language Constellations DLC by which it advances understanding of current multilingualism through addition of a novel perspective from which to view contemporary language use and acquisition The term Dominant Language Constellation denotes the set of a person's or group's most expedient languages functioning as an entire unit and enabling an individual or group to meet their needs in a multilingual environment The volume presents pioneering contributions that employ DLC as the lens for analysing a wide array of issues These include multilingual syntactic development cross linguistic interaction and multilingual production in formal and informal educational contexts as well as linguistic profiles of multilingual groups used in elementary school and higher education Other DLC issues include discussions of how identity emotions and attitudes operate in various minority and majority contexts Because the DLC concept does not assume any inherent hierarchy of languages it can serve as a framework public policy in multilingual countries communities faced with challenging policy determinations regarding choice of languages for use in education settings and more widely in social institutions and the economy Some chapters develop and extend the DLC concept others adapt and apply it to a variety of contexts both global and local Many chapters feature educational and social settings across large parts of the world Africa Australia Europe North America Canada and the USA and Southeast Asia The volume can serve as supplementary reading for courses on multilingualism sociolinguistics language policy and planning educational linguistics Second and Third Language Acquisition     Italian Literature since 1900 in English Translation Robin Healey, 2019-03-14 Providing the most complete record possible of texts by Italian writers active after 1900 this annotated bibliography covers over 4 800 distinct editions of writings by some 1 700 Italian authors Many entries are accompanied by useful notes that provide information on the authors works translators and the reception of the translations This book includes the works of Pirandello Calvino Eco and more recently Andrea Camilleri and Valerio Manfredi Together with Robin Healey s Italian Literature before 1900 in English Translation also published by University of Toronto Press in 2011 this volume makes comprehensive information on translations from Italian accessible for schools libraries and those interested in comparative literature     The Routledge International Handbook of Language Education Policy in Asia Andy Kirkpatrick, Anthony J. The Critique of Bioethical Principlism in Contrast to an African Approach to Bioethics Jude Thaddaeus Buyondo, 2024-08-16 Though some argue that bioethics in the Black African world is simply a reflection of the Western approach to bioethics this work suggests otherwise While the Western approach bioethical principlism claims to offer an absolute approach to bioethics in a universalized common morality this book argues that bioethical principlism can be complemented with African approaches to bioethics Western principlism as primarily presented by Thomas L Beauchamp and James F Childress can hardly be incarnated in the African context of bioethical problems unless it is complemented by a contextual normative understanding of African social realities realities that themselves must be enriched by bioethical principlism Without claiming to offer the last word on intercultural bioethics or disputing which bioethical approaches deserve prioritization the work interactively relies on ordinary moral experiences that are practically visible in lived social realities as well as the community realities surrounding Africans south of the Sahara Prescriptively in order to not simply promote life but to do so fully the African ethical system supports an integral community life by continuously promoting the norm of solidarity continued vitality and the hierarchization of life within the corporate community which the individual must not blindly follow but responsibly interact with without her identity freedom and conscience being crushed

Managing the Development of Digital Marketplaces in Asia Asian Development Bank, 2021-12-01 The coronavirus disease COVID 19 pandemic is accelerating digital transformation across Asia and the Pacific Digital platforms have become prominent intermediaries or marketplaces that allow the exchange of goods services and information They are opening new transaction channels and ways of using resources while lowering service costs and enhancing market efficiency This volume of background papers prepared for the Asian Economic Integration Report 2021 examines the scope and potential benefits of digital platforms as well as the associated policy issues and challenges It proposes measures and policies to help maximize social and economic gains while alleviating adverse effects

Economic and Social Perspectives on European Migration Francesca Fauri, Debora Mantovani, Donatella Strangio, 2020-12-29 This book addresses a wide range of migration related issues in the European context and examines the socioeconomic consequences of migratory flows throughout Europe focusing on a number of emblematic European countries The book is divided into three parts The first part deals with the tension between migrants and their integration processes in the receiving country which is deeply influenced by the attitude of the local population and the different approach to highly and less skilled immigrants The second part analyses the impact of migration on the economic structure of the receiving country while the third part explores the varying degree of immigrants socioeconomic integration in the country of destination The book offers an essential interdisciplinary contribution to the issue of migration and provides readers with a better understanding of the effects that different forms of migration have had and will continue to exert on economic and social change in host countries. It also examines migration policy issues and builds on historical and empirical case studies with policy recommendations on labour market integration and welfare policy issues. The book is addressed to a wide audience including researchers, academics and students of economics, sociology, politics and history as well as government EU officials working on migration topics. English Mechanic and Mirror of Science and Art, 1870

Administrative Challenges and Organizational Leadership in Historically Black Colleges and Universities Prince, Charles B. W., Ford, Rochelle L., 2016-06-16 Student retention, engagement and success are some of the biggest challenges that administrators and university leaders face in higher education settings. As financial support and steep competition pose an issue to student acquisition and participation, especially within Historically Black Colleges and Universities, it becomes pertinent that these academic organizations implement new leadership practices to assist in the overall success of the student as well as the institution. Administrative Challenges and Organizational Leadership in Historically Black Colleges and Universities examines how administrations in Historically Black Educational Institutions utilize different leadership techniques to overcome challenges of student retention and engagement. Focusing on student development, practices, organizational collaboration, funding for institutions, and support provided from faculty and staff within Historically Black Colleges and Universities, this book is an essential reference for university administrators, educators, researchers, and graduate-level students in the fields of education and sociology.
